The Eucharistic Memorial Part 1 The Old Testament:

The Eucharistic Memorial (2 Vols.) Max Thurian, 1962 The Eucharist's Biographer Albert J.D. Walsh, 2012-11-06
Christians are not just called to be transformed into something better or even good but to be transfigured into a new creation ceasing to be what they are in order to become what they are not In The Eucharist's Biographer Albert Walsh proposes that the path to this distinctive Christian identity is through the power of the Holy Spirit as revealed in the unity of Word and Sacrament With this premise he unites two powerful traditions the Proclamation of the Word of the Protestant tradition and the Power of God's Grace in the Eucharist of the Roman Catholic and Eastern Orthodox traditions It is in what Walsh calls the eucharistic evangel as a whole that the individual and community are subject to the real presence of the Christ who in the power of the Holy Spirit is the force behind the transformation and maintenance of Christian identity The Eucharistic Prayer Barry Hudock, 2010-10-01 We somehow think that during the eucharistic prayer at Mass we are expected to be quiet prayerful and attentive if we can be with our children or other neighbors in the pews distracting us In this inviting book Barry Hudock shows us that the eucharistic prayer is indeed the most dynamic and explosive moment of Christian worship in fact of Christian life Hudock takes us back to the beginnings of formal eucharistic worship in the early church then forward to Vatican II and beyond unpacking and exploring the eucharistic prayers old and new in words and concepts accessible to all of us He also offers us as the fruit of the journey a set of points for a eucharistic prayer spirituality to prepare us for the explosion into life that is the whole purpose of our being The Sacraments Ross Thompson, 2006 Provides a grounding in the historical development of the Sacraments from the Old Testament through to modern day thinking General ideas of sacraments and ritual are covered as well as Old Testament practices the response of Jesus and the Early Church A South African Perspective on the New Testament Jacobus H. Petzer, Patrick J. Hartin, 1986 A South African Perspective on the New Testament J. H. Hartin, P. J. Petzer, 2023-10-16 Christian Celebration: The Mass J.D. Crichton, 1993-01-01 This text covers changes in the Mass since publication in 1971 including the 1985 reprint revisions notably Eucharistic Prayers and Eucharistic Prayers from Masses with children It also describes the rites of the Church in the context of their theological and historical background and in relation to pastoral practice It is aimed at theology students students on liturgy courses especially those following the syllabus for liturgical formation issued by the Liturgy Office and all those seeking a deeper understanding of the Mass The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1975 Until Justice and Peace Embrace Nicholas Wolterstorff, 1983 Analyzes the structure of the modern social order and examines the Christian's proper goals of working for peace and justice Bread from Heaven Bernhard Blankenhorn, 2021-08-07 Bread from Heaven offers a contemporary theological synthesis on the Eucharist that brings together classical and critical biblical exegesis debates on the early history of the Christian liturgy patristic doctrine the teachings offered by the Councils of Florence Trent and Vatican II and the Church's lex orandi all within a framework provided by the Eucharistic theology of Thomas Aquinas The volume begins with Christ's Bread of Life discourse in John 6 in light of the Old Testament theme of the manna and the Synoptic accounts of the Last Supper. These biblical texts offer solid foundation for a theology of Eucharistic sacrifice, presence, and Communion. It then continues with a historical and systematic study of the institution of the Eucharist by Christ, with special attention given to the emergence of the first Eucharistic prayers. Then follows a survey of key Christological and ecclesiological themes which undergird Eucharistic theology. The chapters on Eucharistic sacrifice and presence form the heart of the work. Here the focus moves to key conciliar, patristic, and Thomistic insights on these themes. Bread from Heaven clarifies misunderstandings of Eucharistic sacrifice and renders transubstantiation accessible to beginners. Blankenhorn concludes with a study of the consecration, the minister of the Eucharist, and the fruits of communion. The chapter on the debate over the words of institution and the epiclesis gives a fresh perspective that integrates both eastern and western tradition. The study of the Eucharistic celebrant strikes a balance between a spirituality of the priest as acting in persona Christi and of the priest as praying in persona ecclesiae. The concluding chapter centers on the Eucharist's unitive mystical fruits in the Church. This textbook is ideal for an advanced undergraduate or graduate course on Eucharistic theology. It also seeks to advance the debate on several controversial historical and speculative issues in sacramental theology.
