The European Realist Tradition:

The European Realist Tradition Gabriel P. Weisberg, 1982 The exhibition of 250 paintings and drawings by 70 artists recreates a panorama of 19th century French society a faithful rendition of daily events of human lives and environment Dr Gabriel P Weisberg Curator of Art History and Education at The Cleveland Museum of Art and Curator of the Exhibition based his study and comparison of the distinctive qualities of Realism on the categories used by 19th century art critics and the Salon juries genre still life portrait and landscape The organization of this encyclopedic exhibition was an awesome task Much of the material was passed down through the painters families and subsequently hidden or lost The work that had been collected by museums and private collectors was among the least studied of all the artistic traditions of 19th century France The work of numerous neglected painters is compared to the work of well known masters as a means of assessing the range and depth of the Realist tradition during this period Artists represented include Edgar Degas Jean Francois Millet and Gustave Courbet together with such rediscovered figures as Victor Gabriel Gilbert Francois Bonvin and Norbert Goeneutte

Realism Alexander Reichwein, Felix Rösch, 2020-12-26 This book examines how IR's European realist tradition evolved in Europe and due to emigration in the United States in the 20th century It includes an introduction and eight chapters focusing on historical classical and contemporary structural branches of realist IR theorizing in historical and political contexts in which realist thinking did develop It reminds us of realist key figures such as Edward H Carr John H Herz or Hans J Morgenthau but also of almost forgotten realists such as Raymond Aron Stanley Hoffmann or Nicholas J Spykman Given IR mainstream textbooks introducing realism as a conservative American Cold War theory this selection aims to reintroduce realism as a primarily and distinctively European liberal normative and critical tradition A tradition that is almost always misunderstood as a guide for practitioners how to maximize or at least preserve power in the name of the national interest no matter the cost but that is in fact an argument against reckless and crude power politics ideology and totalitarianism This book is an invaluable resource for scholars practitioners and students interested in the realist tradition in IR

Russian Genre Painting in the Nineteenth Century Rosalind Polly Blakesley, 2000 This book addresses the little studied area of Russian genre painting in the first three quarters of the nineteenth century Rosalind Gray begins by examining artistic patronage and published texts which engaged with the visual arts in order to illustrate the context in which Russian artists were working Five major painters Venetsianov Bryullov Ivanov Fedotov and Perov are then discussed in detail Dr Gray identifies the vital contribution which these artists made to Russian intellectual life as genre painting was appropriated as a medium in the dissemination of popular values and social change At the same time the relationship between Russian and European art is explored The book demonstrates that far from being a self contained movement Russian genre painting instead engaged in a fluid and complex dialogue with the art of the West

Interregionalism and the European Union Mario Telò, Louise Fawcett, Frederik Ponjaert, 2016-03-09 Is the EU isolated within the emergent multipolar world Concentrating on interregional relations and focussing on the European Union s EU evolving international role with regards to regional cooperation this innovative book collects a set of fresh empirical analyses of interregional ties binding the EU with its Eastern and Southern neighbourhood as well as with Asia Africa and the Americas The 25 leading authors from 5 continents have contributed original and diverse chapters and the book advances a novel theoretical post revisionist approach beyond both the Eurocentrism of Europe First perspectives as well as the Euroscepticism of those advocating to simply move Beyond Europe After a Foreword by A Acharya the book s five sections reflect the main drivers of EU interregional policies The European Union as a Sophisticated Laboratory of Regional and Interregional Cooperation with chapters by M Tel L Fawcett and T Risse De Facto Drivers of Regionalism F Ponjaert M Shu A Vallad o and C Jakobeit De Jure Drivers of Regionalism S Lavenex G Finizio C Jakobeit R Coman C Cocq S Teo L Shah Cognitive Drivers of Regionalism J R land E Fitriani S Stavridis S Kingah P Bacon and Instrumental Drivers of Regionalism B Delcourt C Olsson G M ller A Malamud P Seabra and L Fioramonti J Kostopoulos

The Routledge Handbook of European Security Sven Biscop, Richard G. Whitman, 2013 This new Handbook brings together key experts on European security from the academic and policy worlds to examine the European Union EU as an international security actor In the two decades since the end of the Cold War the EU has gradually emerged as an autonomous actor in the field of security aiming to safeguard European security by improving global security However the EU s development as a security actor has certainly not remained uncontested either by academics or by policy makers some of whom see the rise of the EU as a threat to their national and or transatlantic policy outlook While the focus of this volume is on the politico military dimension security will also be put into the context of the holistic approach advocated by the EU The book is organised into four key sections Part I The EU as an International Security Actor Part II Institutions Instruments and Means Part III Policies

Part IV Partners This Handbook will be essential reading for all students of European Security the EU European Politics security studies and IR in general The Experimental Turn in the Moroccan Novel, 1976-1989 Anouar El

Younssi,2024-12-03 The Experimental Turn in the Moroccan Novel 1976 1989 examines the trajectory of the Moroccan experimental novel and makes a link between its emergence in the early mid 1970s and the Arab defeat in the six day war with Israel in 1967 Drawing on works by Mu ammad Barr dah Abdull h al Arw A mad al Mad n and others the book contends that the Moroccan experimental novel reflects an historic turning point and transitional cultural landscape It further shows that the experimental novel laid the ground for a different vision of literature an important feature of which was the intent to surpass the traditional realist model as executed by Moroccan novelist Abdulkar m Ghall b 1919 2017 and Egyptian Nobel laureate Naj b Ma f 1911 2006 This new vision of literature seeks to create new discursive spheres for the treatment of the social and the political This book will be an important contribution to debates around Moroccan Arabic Maghrebi literature as well as to the field of literary experimentalism more broadly Neoclassical realism in European politics Asle

Toje,Barbara Kunz,2024-07-30 Realism is making a comeback in Europe This book brings together a new generation of realist scholars It provides a rigorous survey for specialists seeking to understand the dynamics of international relations in a time of change The volume thus seeks to explore the European dimension to neoclassical realism The hope with this book is that it will spark a debate that in time might lead to the re emergence of a distinctly European realist school which draws on the roots of the historical non American realist tradition benefiting from insights in the liberal constructivist paradigm Through detailed case studies the book illustrates that power and influence remain fruitful even indispensable variables through which to understand the formation of foreign policy Reappraising European IR Theoretical Traditions Knud

Erik Jørgensen,Audrey Alejandro,Alexander Reichwein,Felix Rösch,Helen Turton,2017-11-14 This book is about European IR theoretical traditions their origins and key figures Theorizing is among the most important activities that take place within scientific disciplines Scholars therefore routinely talk debate about the discipline of IR and its theories theories are often used to form the pedagogical backbone of IR and theories are also a key part of scholarly identities Over time theories crystalize in to schools of thought strands of theorizing and theoretical traditions This book and the volumes that will follow focus on the origins and trajectories of theoretical traditions and key figures of IR thought in Europe in the 20th Century The authors are situated in Europe and it is thus the origins and trajectories of European theoretical traditions its intellectual history and contemporary forms of theoretical knowledge today that are on the agenda In order to achieve this ambitious aim we opt for a transnational sociological history approach thus going beyond the national lens through which IR has been predominantly studied The series will have an integrative function and contribute to a globalized discourse on IR as a discipline The key benefits of this first volume is that it outlines IR theoretical traditions for the first time ever provides a novel framework for exploring IR s theories and contributes to define and strengthen the European identity of IR This book is an invaluable resource for scholars of IR Mimetic Lives Chloë Kitzinger, 2021-09-15 What makes some characters seem so real Mimetic Lives Tolstoy Dostoevsky and Character in the Novel explores this question through readings of major works by Leo Tolstoy and Fyodor Dostoevsky Working at the height of the Russian realist tradition Tolstoy and Dostoevsky each discovered unprecedented techniques for intensifying the aesthetic illusion that Chlo Kitzinger calls mimetic life the reader's sense of a character's autonomous embodied existence At the same time both authors tested the practical limits of that illusion by extending it toward the novel's formal and generic bounds philosophy history journalism theology myth Through new readings of War and Peace Anna Karenina The Brothers Karamazov and other novels Kitzinger traces a productive tension between mimetic characterization and the author's ambition to transform the reader She shows how Tolstoy and Dostoevsky create lifelike characters and why the dream of carrying the illusion of life beyond the novel consistently fails Mimetic Lives challenges the contemporary truism that novels educate us by providing enduring models for the perspectives of others with whom we can then better empathize Seen close the realist novel's power to create a world of compelling fictional persons underscores its resources as a form for thought and its limits as a direct source of spiritual social or political change Drawing on scholarship in Russian literary studies as well as the theory of the novel Kitzinger's lucid work of criticism will intrigue and challenge scholars working in both fields
