Collins, 1995-09-28 This major new textbook addresses fundamental questions about the nature of the state in early modern Europe through an analysis of the most important continental state France Professor Collins abandons the traditional formulation of the absolute monarchy and presents in its place a state that evolved to meet the needs of the French elites Collins offers a detailed analysis of French society to provide the broader context for the development of the French state The model that emerges from his synthesis is one that relied more on persuasion and congruity of influence than on arbitrary authority and Collins argues that fundamental changes in French society made the monarchical ministerial state a dangerous anachronism by the 1750s leading to political impasse by the second half of the eighteenth century Collins offers a fundamental reinterpretation of the state relevant to historians and students of political thought

The Habsburg Monarchy, 1618-1815 Charles W. Ingrao, 2000-06-29 This is a revised and updated edition of a highly acclaimed history of the early modern Habsburg monarchy Charles W Ingrao challenges the conventional notion of Habsburg state and society as peculiarly backward by tracing its emergence as a military and cultural power of enormous influence The Habsburg monarchy was undeniably different from other European polities geography and linguistic diversity made this inevitable but by 1789 it had laid the groundwork for a single polity capable of transcending its uniquely diverse cultural and historic heritage Charles W Ingrao unravels the web of social political economic and cultural factors that shaped the Habsburg monarchy during the period and presents this complex story in a manner that is both authoritative and accessible to non specialists This edition includes a revised text and bibliographies new genealogical tables and an epilogue which looks forward to the impact of the Habsburg monarchy on twentieth century events

1848 — A European Revolution? A. Körner, 2000-02-17 This book is among the rare contributions to the 150th anniversary of 1848 which takes a completely new theoretically informed approach Instead of a traditional social or political history the authors analyse the dichotomy between the international dimension in the ideas of the revolution and the nationalisation of memories in its commemorations over the past 150 years The book offers original research on the history of European ideas and takes part in the current debate about the relationship between history and memory

1994 Massimo Mastrogregori, 2013-05-08 Annually published since 1930 the International bibliography of Historical Sciences IBOHS is an international bibliography of the most important historical monographs and periodical articles published throughout the world which deal with history from the earliest to the most recent times The works are arranged systematically according to period region or historical discipline and within this classification alphabetically The bibliography contains a geographical index and indexes of persons and authors
