

At day's end I remember three good things.

Apples maybe – their skinshine smell and soft froth of juice.

Water maybe – the pond in the park dark and full of secret fish.

A mountain maybe – that I saw in a film,
or climbed last holiday, and suddenly today it thundered up into a playground game.

Or else an owl – I heard an owl today, and I made bread.

My head is full of all these things, it's hard to choose just three.

I let remembering fill me up with all good things so that good things will overflow into my sleeping self,

and in the morning
good things will be waiting when I wake.
