The Fabulous Lunts A Biography Of Alfred Lunt And Lynn Fontanne:

The Fabulous Lunts Jared Brown, 2005 The Fabulous Lunts Jared Brown, 1986 They were the king and queen of the American theater embodying all the clichés of the successful acting couple temperamental professional argumentative competitive rebellious ingenious on stage magic offstage magical Until they retired in 1960 the Lunts stood for high style and high professionalism on the American stage After their first joint performance in Ferenc Molnár's The Guardsman in 1924 shortly after their marriage they adopted a policy of never acting separately They performed the most varied and difficult of works they practically brought the Theater Guild to life by themselves and their long friendship with Noel Coward spawned Design for Living a work that was rather daring at the time As they grew old there were few plays with big parts for two septuagenarians but the notion that one of them might take a minor role was out of the question particularly once they had become an institution This book is richly researched full of theatrical anecdotes loaded with names from a past much richer than our present and an understanding of what it truly means to be a Broadway star Within a 25 block radius in New York City Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne were treated as though they owned the world And in that period and in that space during those many nights of drama comedy and tragedy they did Design for Living Margot Peters, 2007-12-18 From the much admired biographer of Charlotte Brontë Mrs Patrick Campbell and the Barrymores Margot Peters is surely now our foremost historian of stage make believe Leon Edel a new biography of the most famous English speaking acting team of the twentieth century Individually they were recognized as extraordinary actors each one a star celebrated imitated sought after Together they were legend The Lunts A name to conjure with Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne worked together so imaginatively so seamlessly onstage that they seemed to fuse into one person Offstage they brawled so famously and raucously over every detail of every performance that they inspired the musical Kiss Me Kate At home on Broadway in London's West End touring the United States and Great Britain and even playing the foxhole circuit of World War II the Lunts stunned moved and mystified audiences for more than four decades They were considered to be a rarefied taste but when they toured Texas in the 1930s the audience threw cowboy hats onto the stage Their private life was equally fascinating as unusual as the one they led in public Friends like the critic Alexander Woollcott whom Edna Ferber once described as the little New Jersey Nero who thinks his pinafore is a toga No 1 Coward Laurette Taylor and Sidney Greenstreet received lifelong loyalty and hospitality Ten Chimneys their country home in Genesee Depot Wisconsin is to performers what the Vatican is to Catholics Carol Channing once said The Lunts are where we all spring from In this new biography Margot Peters catches the magic of Lunt and Fontanne their period their work their intimacy and its contradictions with candor delicacy intelligence and wit She writes about their personal and creative choices as deftly as she captures their world from their meeting backstage naturally when Fontanne was a young actress in the first flush of stardom and Lunt a lanky midwesterner who came in the stage door bowed to her elaborately lost his balance and fell down the stairs and the early days when an unknown and very hungry No 1

Coward lived in a swank hotel in a room the size of a closet and cadged meals at their table to the telegram the famous couple once sent to a movie mogul turning down a studio contract worth a fortune We can be bought my dear Mr Laemmle but we can't be bored We follow the Lunts through triumphs in plays such as The Guardsman The Taming of the Shrew and Design for Living through friendships and feuds through the intricate way they worked with such playwrights and directors as S N Behrman Robert Sherwood Giraudoux Drennatt Peter Brook and with each other Margot Peters captures the gallantry of two remarkably gifted people who lived for their art and for each other Alfred Lunt and Lynn Fontanne were once described as an amazing duet of intelligence and gaiety Margot Peters re-creates the fun and the fireworks

The Gay & Lesbian Theatrical Legacy Billy J. Harbin, Kim Marra, Robert A. Schanke, 2005 Recovers the hidden history of theater professionals who transgressed the gendered expectations of their time A Gambler's Instinct Milly S.

Barranger, 2010-07-01 Broadway producer Cheryl Crawford 1902-1986 declared in her 1977 autobiography The theatre has been my life Crawford was notoriously circumspect about her private life and only now with Milly S Barranger's insightful biography is her full story revealed A major Broadway producer in an era when women producers were exceedingly rare Crawford found unprecedented success with the plays of Tennessee Williams including The Rose Tattoo and Sweet Bird of Youth but her enduring legend is as a musical producer having brought Kurt Weill's One Touch of Venus Lerner and Loewe's Brigadoon and Paint Your Wagon to the stage Her commercial success though was balanced with the founding of studios that would enable actors to explore their art outside the strictures of commercial theater She cofounded the Group Theatre with Harold Clurman and Lee Strasberg the American Repertory Theatre with Margaret Webster and Eva Le Gallienne and the Actors Studio with Elia Kazan and Robert Lewis but her idealism was constantly frustrated by unfulfilled artistic promises from her male counterparts and by the chronic shortage of funding for the nonprofit enterprises As Barranger traces Crawford's career as an independent producer she tells the parallel story of American theater in the mid twentieth century making A Gambler's Instinct both an enjoyable and informative biography of a remarkable woman and an important addition to the literature of the modern theater
