The Failure Of Educational Reform In Canada:

The Failure of Educational Reform in Canada Douglas Myers, 1973 During the last decade education seemed to permeate all other social and political issues It was a major growth industry became the largest single budget item in the public sector and like ecology and women s lib today was connected to virtually the whole social structure If we think of the educational system as a room in a house we have just emerged from a period during which we filled that room with an assortment of interesting and expensive pieces of furniture and accessories and spent a lot of time and energy moving them about Without really altering the structure of the room we have redecorated it several times and have even built on one or two additions to it But we have tended to ignore the state of the house itself and the necessary connections between its structure and that of the room This collection of articles reprinted from The Canadian Forum conveys something of the current atmosphere of disenchantment and scepticism Education no longer seems to be the answer for every problem modern society faces Indeed the school system has come under increasing attack as being a major force in perpetuating those very inequities which it was supposed to eliminate Though far from being a complete inventory of the state of Canadian education these articles raise a number of important issues which those concerned with public education cannot afford to ignore if education is to be even in a limited way an effective instrument of social reform Alternative Schools in British Columbia 1960-1975 Harley Rothstein, 2024-07-18 The tumultuous 1960s was an era of the counterculture political activism and resistance to authority Conventions and values were challenged and new approaches to education captured the imaginations of parents teachers and students Reacting against the one size fits all nature of the traditional public school system groups of parents and teachers in Canada and the United States established alternative schools or free schools based on the Progressive child centred philosophy of John Dewey and the Romantic ideas of Summerhill founder A S Neill In Alternative Schools in British Columbia 1960 1975 Harley Rothstein tells the story of ten such schools that arose in the province of British Columbia Drawing on 350 self conducted interviews newspaper articles personal journals and school records Dr Rothstein invites readers to experience the early days of alternative schools He describes the educational philosophy curriculum and governance of these institutions and introduces readers to the people who were at the heart of alternative communities Tracing the evolution successes and challenges of each school he presents the day to day experience and brings to life the ethos of the 1960s era Historians educators and all curious readers will become immersed in this engaging account of a group of educational pioneers on Canada s west coast and how they inspired the liberalization of the public school system that would come in the 1970s The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy Daniel Drache, Wallace Clement, 1985-01-01 The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy is a handy reference to the vast range of research and writing that political economists in Canada have completed to the date of publication The book is divided into twenty five subject bibliographies each one compiled and introduced by an expert in the field The overall range of subjects includes economic development in Canada Canada's external economic relations regional disparities and regional development social and economic classes women Native peoples politics and the Canadian state nationalism culture and political thought The book is indexed by author and includes a helpful shortlist of the staples in Canadian political economy Published in 1985 The New Practical Guide to Canadian Political Economy remains a useful reference to some of the classic literature of the discipline The Curriculum History of Canadian Teacher Education Theodore Michael

Christou,2017-08-07 Organized by region this edited collection provides a comprehensive look at how teacher education has evolved regionally and nationally in Canada Offering an in depth look at specific provinces and territories this volume contextualizes the landscape of Canadian public education and the place of teacher education within it Shedding light on the ways Canadian teacher education was shaped by and in turn influenced its environment contributors evaluate the current state of education and consider themes tensions and historical developments presenting a view of teacher education that encompasses both its future and its past A significant contribution to the field of curriculum history this book offers a benchmark for conversations about the purposes means and ends of teacher education in Canada Schoolteaching in Canada Alexander Lockhart,1991-12-15 Virtually every Canadian has been influenced for better or worse by schoolteachers Adults recall with clarity experiences with individual teachers children are in contact with schoolteachers on a daily basis parents know the importance of teachers in their children's lives Teachers are the key component in the hotly debated heavily funded education systems across the country Theirs is a profession at the centre of often contradictory interests pedagogic political professional and public Alexander Lockhart offers a survey of elementary and secondary schoolteachers and presents a profile of the profession as a whole Among the topics he discusses are the characteristics of today's teachers the conditions in which they work their professional associations career patterns in teaching the political environment current pedagogy and the public interest His findings reflect a profession in transition In elementary schools two thirds of teaching staff are women in secondary schools two thirds are men Half of all Canada's teachers are at mid career aged 35-49 and near the top of their salary levels Teachers salaries have risen faster than the industrial composite in recent years yet teachers are frustrated in their aspirations As a group Lockhart says teachers have less autonomy than other professionals Current policy directions and public attitudes aggravate this situation Lockhart warns that the teaching profession is moving into crisis The implications are serious for our children and for the quality of life throughout Canada as we look toward the twenty first century The Canada Year Book ,1974 Historical Essays on Upper Canada James Keith Johnson,Bruce

G. Wilson,1989 Ontario was known as Upper Canada from 1791 to 1841 Failure of Corporate School Reform Kenneth J. Saltman,2015-11-17 Corporate school reforms especially privatization union busting and high stakes testing have been hailed as the last best hope for public education Yet as Kenneth Saltman powerfully argues in this new book corporate school reforms have decisively failed to deliver on what their proponents have promised for two decades higher test scores and lower costs As Saltman illustrates the failures of corporate school reform are far greater and more destructive than they seem Left unchecked corporate school reform fails to challenge and in fact worsens the most pressing problems facing public schooling including radical funding inequalities racial segregation and anti intellectualism But it is not too late for change Against both corporate school reformers and its liberal critics this book argues for the expansion of democratic pedagogies and a new common school movement that will lead to broader social renewal The Politics of Educational Reform in Alberta Alison Taylor, 2001-01-01 A case study of educational restructuring in Alberta during the Klein revolution the period of dramatic political and economic change introduced by Premier Ralph Klein s Conservative government of the 1990s

Psychological Theory and Educational Reform David R. Olson, 2003-06-16 For well over a century educational reformers have looked for a breakthrough in the sciences of psychology and pedagogy that would dramatically improve the effectiveness of schooling This book shows why such an ambition is an illusion Schools are institutions which attempt to balance the needs of a bureaucratic society that funds them with the personal goals interests hopes and ambitions of the students who enroll in them Reform efforts attempt to realign that balance without any clear conception of how the two are related This book offers a theoretical account of the relation between the minds of learners and the institutional structure of the school that would account both for the ways that schooling remakes minds and societies and why such institutions are resistant to change
