The Fall Of A Sparrow Of Death And Dreams And Healing:

The Fall of a Sparrow Kent Koppelman, 2020-11-25 In this book the author describes his attempt to create a meaningful and satisfying grieving process following the death of his 19 year old son Jason in a car accident The narrative confronts the harsh reality of death from the hospital to the cemetery and the many mundane yet painful decisions that must be made For those who must cope with an unexpected death the grieving process becomes a struggle to express one's love and at the same time say goodbye

Wrestling with the Angel Kent Koppelman, Dale Lund, 2017-07-05 Wrestling with the Angel addresses the human struggle to cope with death dying grief and bereavement The book includes essays a one act play a short story and poetry including shape poems rhyming structured verse and free verse In the one act play an angel of death comes for a man who has lived an unexamined life and wants to explain why he is not prepared to leave The short story offers a humorous look at a man who resists aging by continuing to view himself as the young man he once was The diverse genres allow for different ways of exploring these issues but all are intended to engage the reader's emotions as well as intellect The writings incorporate reflections and quotations addressing common human issues related to our mortality and explore reactions to the loss of a loved one whether expected such as the death of an aging parent or someone with a terminal illness or unexpected such as accidental death The final chapters examine how aging causes us to assess our lives and why preparing ourselves for death can enhance the quality of our life This is a book with many more questions than answers but the reader is invited to share in the process of finding answers It is a book that requires the reader to be comfortable with ambiguity because the reality it describes is often ambiguous a reality that presents us with many choices but few certainties

Intended Audience Scholars hospice workers funeral home directors hospital chaplains ministers and others who work with bereavement issues classes in death education and classes for mental health professionals in death and grief general readers who have suffered the loss of a loved one

Making Sense of Death Gerry Cox, Robert Bendiksen, Robert Stevenson, 2021-11-18 The editors of Making Sense of Death Spiritual Pastoral and Personal Aspects of Death Dying and Bereavement provide stimulating discussions as they ponder the meaning of life and death This anthology explores the process of meaning making in the face of death and the roles of religion and spirituality at times of loss the profound and devastating experience of loss in the death of a spouse or a child a psychological model of spirituality the dimensions of spirituality humor in client caregiver relationships the worldview of modernity in contrast to postmodern assumptions the Buddhist perspective of death dying and pastoral care meaning making in the virtual reality of cyberspace individualism and death and the historical context of Native Americans the concept of disenfranchised grief and its detailed application to the Native American experience It also explores a qualitative survey on the impact of the shooting deaths of students in Colorado a team approach with physicians nursing social services and pastoral care a study of health care professionals comparing clergy with other health professionals marginality in spiritual and pastoral care for the dying a qualitative research study of registered nurses in the northeast United States and loss and growth in the seasons of life Helping Grieving People J. Shep Jeffreys, 2004-12-30 Helping Grieving People is a training manual for care providers who will provide support and counseling to those grieving death illness and other losses The author addresses grief as it affects a variety of relationships and discusses different intervention and support strategies always cognizant of individual and cultural differences in the expression and treatment of grief Jeffreys has established a practical approach to preparing trainee caregivers through three basic tracks Heart Head and Hand The first step Heart calls for self discovery freeing oneself of accumulated loss in order to focus all attention on the griever Head emphasizes understanding the complex and dynamic phenomena of human grief Hand stresses the caregiver's actual intervention and speaks to the appropriate level of skill as well as the various methods of healing available Following these three motifs the Handbook discusses the social and cultural contexts of grief as well as its psychological constructs Jesus Wept Gregory P. Wynot, Sr., 2006-11-22 One of the less formal but most important functions of parish ministry entails providing counseling to parishioners in need of sympathetic hearing and understanding advice from someone they personally know and trust Jesus Wept provides a theological psychological and doctrinal foundation of the Eastern Orthodox Christian view of death that counselors can pass along to help the bereaved place the decedent's passing into proper spiritual context It also discusses the psychological functional and spiritual aspects of the Eastern Orthodox funeral services Author Gregory P Wynot Sr focuses on the especially traumatic circumstances connected with the death of a family member or loved one and details the stages of dying and the grieving process He also discusses how to diagnose and categorize different kinds of grief as well as how best to approach specific situations Finally Wynot looks at the impact of bereavement counseling on the counselor who must find a delicate balance between being a spiritual father and psychological caregiver Also included are resource appendices and a bibliography for further reading Jesus Wept is an invaluable resource that can ease the burden of what is certainly one of the most challenging tasks any counselor is called upon to perform On Bereavement Tony Walter, 1999-10-16 Insightful and refreshing Professor Dennis Klass Webster University Religion Department St Louis USA A tour de force Dr Colin Murray Parkes OBE MD FRCPsych President of CRUSE Some societies and some individuals find a place for their dead others leave them behind In recent years researchers professionals and bereaved people themselves have struggled with this Should the bond with the dead be continued or broken What is clear is that the grieving individual is not left in a social vacuum but has to struggle with expectations from self family friends professionals and academic theorists This ground breaking book looks at the social position of the bereaved They find themselves caught between the living and the dead sometimes searching for guidelines in a de ritualized society that has few to offer sometimes finding their grief inappropriately pathologised and policed At its best bereavement care offers reassurance validation and freedom to talk where the client has previously encountered judgmentalism In this unique book Tony Walter applies sociological insights to one of the most personal of human situations

On Bereavement is aimed at students on medical nursing counselling and social work courses that include bereavement as a topic It will also appeal to sociology students with an interest in death dying and mortality Values in the Key of Life
Kent L. Koppelman, 2017-03-02 First Published in 2017 This book is grounded in real events because values should not be regarded as abstractions but as the substance of our lives It is helpful for those who are engaged in the important and ongoing struggle to identify and practice those values which are meaningful to them as members of a community Omega, 2006 Men Coping with Grief Dale A. Lund, 2000 Provides knowledge about the ways men grieve and how their bereavement experiences impact various aspects of their lives International Bibliography of Book Reviews of Scholarly Literature Chiefly in the Fields of Arts and Humanities and the Social Sciences, 1999
