Sites of Jewish Memory Glenda Abramson, 2018-10-24. This book brings together a collection of 16 essays first published in the Journal of Modern Jewish Studies that explore Jewish communities in North Africa, Turkey, and Iraq. The discussions are located primarily in the 20th century, but essays also examine the Jewish community in 16th-century Istanbul and in early modern Morocco. Topics include traumatic departures of communities from countries of centuries-old Jewish residence and relocations; pilgrimages to holy sites by Mizrahi Jews in Israel; resonances of Shabbetai Zevi in Turkey and Morocco; otherness and the nature of homeland; the Sephardi culinary heritage as realised in the cookbooks of Claudia Roden; sites of memory such as Kuzguncuk in Turkey; and a controversial view of the exclusions and erasures that Arabized Jews have undergone. In this unique collection, a major but not exclusive theme is that of the instability of memory and the attempt to understand the interactions between memory and history as Jews recount their experiences of living in and often leaving their past homelands. This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Modern Jewish Studies.
