Bowen,1993 Ford Madox Ford novelist poet critic champion of young authors travel writer chronicler of his own times was a man mad about writing As Ezra Pound observed Ford actually lived the heroic artistic life that Yeats talked about An incorrigible bohemian who passed as a nice old gentleman at a tea party Ford devoted himself to literature and the arts founding two important literary magazines The English Review and the transatlantic review and writing over eighty books including The Good Soldier and Parade s End Chichester in the 1960s Alan H.J. Green,2015-02-02 Chichester is the archetypal Georgian town with streets of elegant buildings gathered closely around the ancient cathedral It usually appears to today s first time visitor that the city has been largely untouched by the hand of time particularly the destructive hand that guided the 1960s However this is not the case in the 1960s Chichester faced the same challenges as all historic towns and much was lost but the brakes were applied in good time and it became one of the first conservation areas in the country This book the first of its kind looks at how Chichester fared in that turbulent decade how it gained its status as a city of culture with a new theatre and museum and how it expanded to meet the demands of its growing populace Historical research blends with personal anecdote to produce a heartfelt portrait of the decade Autobiography of an Unknown Indian: Part II destructive he has vented his spleen at the stupidity and philistinism of the British in India His latest book is almost a thousand pages long It testifies to his eloquence wit and intellectual brilliance that he can go on at such length without once becoming a bore Ian Buruma The New York Review of Books
