Reeve,Michael Windover,2023-09-01 Leading architect E J Lennox designed Casa Loma for the flamboyant Sir Henry Pellatt and Mary Lady Pellatt as an enormous castellated mansion that overlooked the booming metropolis of Toronto The first scholarly book dedicated to this Canadian landmark Casa Loma situates the famous house on the hill within Toronto's architectural, urban, and cultural history. Casa Loma was not only an outsized home for the self-appointed Lord of Toronto but a statement of Canada's association with empire, an assertion of the country's British legacy. During and after the Pellatts occupation, Casa Loma was a major landmark and it has since infiltrated the iconography and collective memory of the metropolis. The reception of Casa Loma, variously loved and abhorred by Torontonians, reflects many of Toronto's major aspirations and anxieties about itself as a modern city. Across ten chapters, this book charts the history of Casa Loma from the purchase of the estate atop Davenport Ridge in 1903 and its construction from 1906 through to its sale and the dispersal of its contents in 1924, its subsequent life as a hotel, and finally its transformation into one of the city's major entertainment venues. Casa Loma brings to light a wealth of hitherto unpublished archival images and documentation of the house's visual and material culture, weaving together a textured account of the design, use, and life of this unique building over the course of the twentieth century. American Florist, 1906 Sons of Canada Augustus Bridle, Frederick Sproston Challener, 1916

Canadian Gazette and Export Trader, 1909 Toronto Sketches 6 Mike Filey, 2000-09-01. Stories of Old Toronto never lose favour with the city's nostalgia buffs, and as long as Mike Filey continues to provide us with his The Way We Were columns, no one's appetite will have to go unsatisfied. When Mike's Toronto Sunday Sun columns were first brought together in Toronto Sketches, demand was so high that it prompted a second collection, then a third, and a fourth, and a fifth. Now for 2000, Mike has once again brought together some of the best of his Toronto Sunday Sun columns for Toronto Sketches 6, the latest installment in the wildly popular series. This time around, Mike takes us to a performance at the Royal Alexandra Theatre by Al Jolson, the opening of Sunnybrook Hospital, a game between the baseball Leafs and the Havana Sugar Kings with Fidel Castro throwing out the first pitch, and many more famous, notorious, and entertaining episodes in the history of this great city. Eaton Hall Kelly Mathews, 2015-05-25. In 1901, Florence McCrea married into one of the most prosperous families in the Dominion of Canada, becoming Lady Eaton fourteen years later when her husband John Craig Eaton was knighted. Not long after the death of her husband, Lady Eaton retired from her home in Toronto to the seventy-two room Norman style chateau she had built on their King City property. She named it Eaton Hall. The estate fueled the local economy and community supported the Canadian World War II effort and established a firm place in the hearts and minds of the residents of King Township. This volume examines a range of material, including ceramics, paintings, caricatures, interior design, and theatrical performances in various global contexts.
