Unknown No More Joanne Dearcopp, Christine Hill Smith, 2021-07-29 Thanks in part to the Ken Burns documentary The Dust Bowl Sanora Babb is perhaps best known today for her novel Whose Names Are Unknown 2004 which might have been published in 1939 had her publisher not thought the market too small for two Dust Bowl novels hers and Steinbeck's The Grapes of Wrath Into the twenty first century Babb wrote and published lyrical prose and poetry that revealed her prescient ideas about gender race and the environment The essays collected in Unknown No More recover and analyze her previously unrecognized contributions to American letters Editors Joanne Dearcopp and Christine Hill Smith have assembled a group of distinguished scholars who for the first time in book length form explore the life and work of Sanora Babb This collection of pathbreaking essays addresses Babb's position within the literature of the Great Plains and American West her leftist political odyssey as a card carrying Communist who ultimately broke with the Party and her ecofeminist leanings as reflected in the environmental themes she explored in her fiction and nonfiction With literary sensibilities reminiscent of Willa Cather Ralph Ellison and Meridel LeSueur Babb's work revealed gender based environmental and working class injustices from the Depression era to the late twentieth century No longer unknown Sanora Babb's life and work form a prism through which the peril and promise of twentieth century America may be seen

Winkies, Toilets and Holy Places Timothy Merrill, 2009-01-27

What others are saying about Winkies Toilets and Holy Places A classic travel tale with adventure misadventure and curlicue unexpected turns in the road But more than that its a voyage in which a family discovers what matters most to them across America and Europe without a dime to spare this is not the travel of pretty picture books from marital squabbles to homesick children from a haunting island monastery to the pure pleasure of simple farmhouse fare They travel moment to moment some staggeringly beautiful gently swinging in cable car above the Swiss Alps and others staggeringly real as when the cable car ride makes one of the boys sick to his stomach with nowhere to go All of this Merrill recounts with the gentle humor of an experienced pastor the wavering resolve of a stepfather and the openhearted joy of a man rekindling his wanderlust Read this tale if youre seeking a window to the Europe not of guidebooks and picture books but of human hearts finding that home is everywhere Paul Shepherd former Writer in Residence and Kingsbury Fellow at Florida State University whose debut novel More Like Not Running Away was the winner of the 2004 Mary McCarthy Prize in Short Fiction American Book Publishing Record ,2003
