Canadian Books in Print, 2000 The Confederation Group of Canadian Poets, 1880-1897 D. M. R. Bentley, 2004-01-01 As one of the formative periods in Canadian history the late nineteenth century witnessed the birth of a nation a people and a literature In this study of Canada's first school of poets D M R Bentley combines archival work including extensive research in periodicals and newspapers with close readings of the work of Charles G D Roberts Archibald Lampman Bliss Carman William Wilfred Campbell Duncan Campbell Scott and Frederick George Scott Bentley chronicles the formation reception national and international successes and eventual disintegration after the 1895 War Among the Poets of the Confederation Group whose poetry forever changed the perception and direction of Canadian literature With the aid of biographical political and sociological analyses Bentley's literary history delineates the group's political aesthetic and thematic dispositions and characteristics and contextualizes them not only within Canadian history and politics but also within contemporary intellectual and literary currents including Romantic nationalism Canadianism and poetic formalism Bentley casts new light on the poets commonalities such as their debt to Young Ireland their commitment to careful workmanship and their participation in the American mind cure movement as well as on their most accomplished and anthologized poems from 1880 to 1897 In the process he presents a compelling case for the literary and historical importance of these six men and their poems in light of Canada's cultural and political past and defends their right to be known as Canada's first poetic fraternity at a time when Canada was striving to achieve literary and national distinction The Confederation Group of Canadian Poets 1880 1897 is an erudite and innovative work of literary history and critical interpretation that belongs on the bookshelf of every serious scholar of literary studies

Carnival Harold Rhenisch, 2000 Poet bioregional essayist and explorer of post colonial landscapes in decay and transition Harold Rhenisch combines his father's character with his own and in a series of luminous closely linked stories takes the reader on an emotional journey through humour joy heartbreak horror spiritual catastrophe and redemption to present a second look at history This is war from a child's eyes up close and personal from silly pranks to playing war games in the forest and finally to miracles of healing as the fabric of the world collapses and must be rebuilt Hansel his mother and their 16 year old Russian maid tend an escaped French P O W in their basement in a small town on the edge of the Black Forest during the Second World War During the Occupation this act simultaneously saves their lives and also brings them close to death as they attempt to save the innkeeper's daughter after a brutal rape by occupying Moroccan soldiers and the horrific punishment enacted upon them by the French command This story is not fiction It is the art of story telling that creates for us Hansel's fairytale village at once a magical world of mermaids witches carnival characters and eelfishers and also a sulfur choked brutalized wartime town The Canadian farmer who was Hansel returns to this German town to relive the dreams stories and terrors he experienced fifty years before In incandescent emotionally charged prose he seeks among the ruins of society to understand love and his place in the world as a man This is a powerful and captivating evocation of innocence and storytelling from one of Canada's master prose stylists
