Dixon, 2016-04-15 What can unfold from an engagement of feminist issues concerns and practices with the geopolitical How does feminism allow for a reconfiguration of how these two elements the geo and the political are understood and related What kinds of objects can be located and put into motion What kinds of relations can be drawn between these What kinds of practice become valued And what is glossed or rendered absent in the process In this thought provoking and original contribution Deborah P Dixon cautions against the exhaustion of feminist geopolitics as a critique of both a classical and a critical geopolitics and points instead to how feminist imaginaries of Self Other and Earth allow for all manner of work to be undertaken Importantly one of the things they provide for is a reservoir of concerns thoughts and practices that can be reappropriated to flesh out what a feminist geopolitics can be While providing a much needed sustained interjection that draws out achievements to date the book thus gestures forward to productive lines of inquiry and method Grounded via a series of globally diverse case studies that traverse time as well as space Feminist Geopolitics feels for the borders of geopolitical thought and practice by navigating four complex and corporeally aware objects of analysis namely flesh bone touch and abhorrence      Ecopoiesis Stephen K. Levine, Alexander Kopytin, 2022-06-21 This book emphasises ecological nature assisted expressive and creative arts and art therapies within the context of the current ecological crises Rich in fresh theoretical perspectives this timely compendium of theory research and practice also provides methods and tools that can help the reader understand and incorporate new eco perspectives into their work Building on the concept of poiesis as the human creative function this book seeks to stress the importance of humanity s ecopoietic capacity creating a more sustainable life for humans It has been specifically created within the context of this most critical period of human existence and acts as a forum for innovation based on the values of the environmental movement and its desire to address the extensive sociopsychological impact of the ecological crisis      Sitting in the Circle Jon Berenson, 2013-05 These 37 essays are rooted in the inspiration I experience in working with my patients and with participants at the Opening the Heart Workshop Though they are all very different in tone and content they are all about love in the small places off center stage They may have been about lifting a hosta leaf and finding a spider s web in diamonds of morning dew or about watching new grass grow holding a weeping patient in my office watching a man outside my office drag his leg behind as he carries groceries home They are all I think small love stories
