Marketing Information Michael R. Oppenheim, Wendy Diamond Mulcahy, 2013-10-31 Help your patrons create effective marketing research plans with this sourcebook Marketing Information A Strategic Guide for Business and Finance Libraries identifies and describes secondary published sources of information for typical marketing questions and research projects. Experts in the field offer a guided tour of the signposts and landmarks in the world of marketing information, highlighting the most important features. This extensive guide serves as a strategic bibliography covering over 200 printed books and serials, subscription databases, and free Web sites. Marketing Information contains several useful features including basic bibliographic descriptions with publisher, location, frequency, format, price, and URL; contact information for each source; listed special text boxes with practical tips, techniques, and short cuts; an alphabetical listing of all source titles; an index to subjects and sources. Unlike some research guides that recommend only esoteric and expensive resources, this book offers a well-balanced mix of the readily available and the costly, and/or not widely available, so that researchers who lack immediate access to a large university business research collection still have a core of accessible materials that can be found in a public library or on the Web. This book will help you provide top notch service to clients such as marketing instructors in developing assignments and other curricula which incorporate a business information literacy component; students whose assignments require library or other research to identify and use key marketing information tools; entrepreneurs and self-employed business people writing marketing plans, business plans, loan applications, and feasibility plans; marketers who wish to consult and/or incorporate standard secondary sources in their marketing plans or research projects; experienced market researchers who need relevant secondary sources as a preliminary step to surveys, questionnaires, and focus groups; reference librarians who advise these groups in academic, public, or corporate library settings; collection development librarians selecting material for public, academic, and special libraries. Marketing Information is a practical tool for marketers and for those studying to be marketers. The authors are seasoned academic business librarians who have helped doctoral candidates, faculty researchers, MBA and undergraduate students, marketing professionals, entrepreneurs, and business managers all find the right information. Now in this resource, they come together to help you.

The Advertising Red Books, 2007-10 Standard Directory of Advertising Agencies, Standard Directory of Advertisers, 1991 Catalogue of the Public Documents of the ... Congress and of All Departments of the Government of the United States for the Period from ... to ..., 1929 Marketing Information Guide, 1961 Emporium Edwin Barnard, 2015-03-01 Look at the Hilzinger washing machine costing 3 in 1880. It certainly seems rather primitive, but did it get the clothes clean and how hard was it to operate? And what about Dr Allen's belt, powered by the magic of electricity? Could it really help with rheumatism and lumbago as its maker promised? Advertisements can reveal a great deal about an age. Gleaned from the pages of long forgotten publications such as The Sydney Gazette and New South Wales Advertiser, Australian Town and Country Journal, and

Australasian Sketcher with Pen and Pencil together with dozens of regional newspapers they paint an intriguing picture of the world of our great great grandparents With over 450 images this book is one to pore over and enjoy perhaps that electric hairbrush really did cure baldness and wouldn't it be wonderful if those strange cannabis cigarettes did relieve asthma Advertisements for condoms It was just a matter of knowing what to look for In some ways it is striking how little has changed It comes as no surprise for example to discover that colonial women found it hard to resist a bargain nor that they worried a great deal about their complexions and the sweetness of their breath Colonial men had their own concerns prominent among them those old bugbears of advancing baldness and retreating virility For those seeking to revive flagging passions there were always the racy tales advertised each week in the illustrated papers price one shilling posted in a sealed envelope Equally striking are the many differences in attitude and outlook revealed by old advertisements It is curious for example that for most of the nineteenth century nobody except perhaps the very young seem to have been much concerned about body shape It was only in the 1880s and 90s that advertisements began to appear offering products designed to deal with unsightly corpulence or to plump out that underdeveloped bosom It cannot have taken advertisers long to realise that they were onto a good thing exploiting those particular anxieties Emporium uses collections of advertisements as starting points in assembling a series of self contained snapshots Introduced by a section on shopping a succession of double page spreads each with its eyewitness accounts and contemporary descriptions work to paint a lively and entertaining picture of everyday life in the Australian colonies Although this is a book about advertising it is really also all about the everyday lives of nineteenth century Australians The focus throughout is on the lives of so called ordinary people the working men women and children whose struggles all too often merit little more than a footnote or two in many of our national histories How did they go about getting married How did they plan their families How did they keep clean How did they cook their food Advertisements can answer all these questions Humorous quirky fascinating you will find this book compulsive Edwin Barnard is an author and designer with an enduring interest in the everyday lives of nineteenth century Australians His previous books include Exiled for the National Library of Australia Edwin lives in Avalon NSW
