The African American Encyclopedia Vol 3:

Encyclopedia of African American History, 1619-1895 Paul Finkelman, 2006-04-06 It is impossible to understand America without understanding the history of African Americans In nearly seven hundred entries the Encyclopedia of African American History 1619 1895 documents the full range of the African American experience during that period from the arrival of the first slave ship to the death of Frederick Douglass and shows how all aspects of American culture history and national identity have been profoundly influenced by the experience of African Americans The Encyclopedia covers an extraordinary range of subjects Major topics such as Abolitionism Black Nationalism the Civil War the Dred Scott case Reconstruction Slave Rebellions and Insurrections the Underground Railroad and Voting Rights are given the in depth treatment one would expect But the encyclopedia also contains hundreds of fascinating entries on less obvious subjects such as the African Grove Theatre Black Seafarers Buffalo Soldiers the Catholic Church and African Americans Cemeteries and Burials Gender Midwifery New York African Free Schools Oratory and Verbal Arts Religion and Slavery the Secret Six and much more In addition the Encyclopedia offers brief biographies of important African Americans as well as white Americans who have played a significant role in African American history from Crispus Attucks John Brown and Henry Ward Beecher to Olaudah Equiano Frederick Douglass Sarah Grimke Sojourner Truth Nat Turner Phillis Wheatley and many others All of the Encyclopedia s alphabetically arranged entries are accessibly written and free of jargon and technical terms To facilitate ease of use many composite entries gather similar topics under one headword The entry for Slave Narratives for example includes three subentries The Slave Narrative in America from the Colonial Period to the Civil War Interpreting Slave Narratives and African and British Slave Narratives A headnote detailing the various subentries introduces each composite entry Selective bibliographies and cross references appear at the end of each article to direct readers to related articles within the Encyclopedia and to primary sources and scholarly works beyond it A topical outline chronology of major events nearly 300 black and white illustrations and comprehensive index further enhance the work s usefulness Richard

Wright Kenneth Kinnamon, 2014-11-04 African American writer Richard Wright 1908 1960 was celebrated during the early 1940s for his searing autobiography Black Boy and fiction Native Son By 1947 he felt so unwelcome in his homeland that he exiled himself and his family in Paris But his writings changed American culture forever and today they are mainstays of literature and composition classes He and his works are also the subjects of numerous critical essays and commentaries by contemporary writers This volume presents a comprehensive annotated bibliography of those essays books and articles from 1983 through 2003 Arranged alphabetically by author within years are some 8 320 entries ranging from unpublished dissertations to book length studies of African American literature and literary criticism Also included as an appendix are addenda to the author s earlier bibliography covering the years from 1934 through 1982 This is the exhaustive reference for serious students of Richard Wright and his critics From David Walker to Barack Obama Emma S. Etuk

PhD,2011-05-24 In FROM DAVID WALKER TO BARACK OBAMA Dr Emma S Etuk contends that well known Ethiopianists have offered the inspiration for black freedom and must not be forgotten Ethiopianists and Ethiopianism have little or nothing to do with the government or the country known today as Ethiopia in East Africa Ethiopianists shared the common belief hope and faith in Africa as the land of their ancestors to which by the grace of God they would return as free people They based their hope and faith in Africa upon a biblical text found in Psalm 68 31 Princes shall come out of Egypt Ethiopia shall soon stretch out her hands unto God Ethiopianism was the ideology and Ethiopianists were the apostles of the ideology In this study Etuk offers studies of well known Ethiopianists W E B Du Bois Marcus Garvey Edward Blyden Henry Garnet Alexander Crummell Bishop Henry Turner Martin R Delany David Walker and Frances E W Harper the famed African American poet Etuk a professional historian resurrects these names with a new perspective and argues that these men and women were the keepers of the African Dream He provides an exhaustive record of their speeches writings and actions to provide a solid foundation for his thesis that Ethiopianists are the keepers of the African Dream The African American Experience during World War II Neil A. Wynn,2010-05-16 Drawing on more than thirty years of teaching and research Neil A Wynn combines narrative history and primary sources as he locates the World War II years within the long term struggle for African Americans equal rights It is now widely accepted that these years were crucial in the development of the emerging Civil Rights movement through the economic and social impact of the war as well as the military service itself Wynn examines the period within the broader context of the New Deal era of the 1930s and the Cold War of the 1950s concluding that the war years were neither simply a continuation of earlier developments nor a prelude to later change Rather this period was characterized by an intense transformation of black hopes and expectations encouraged by real socioeconomic shifts and departures in federal policy Black self consciousness at a national level found powerful expression in new movements from the demand for equality in the military service to changes in the shop floor to the Double V campaign that linked the fight for democracy at home for the fight for democracy abroad As the nation played a new world role in the developing Cold War the tensions between America's stated beliefs and actual practices emphasized these issues and brought new forces into play More than a half century later this book presents a much needed up to date short and readable interpretation of existing scholarship Accessible to general and student readers it tells the story without jargon or theory while including the historiography and debate on particular issues Pioneering African-American Women in the Advertising Business Judy Davis,2016-12-08 Much has been written about the men and women who shaped the field of advertising some of whom became legends in the industry However the contributions of African American women to the advertising business have largely been omitted from these accounts Yet evidence reveals some trailblazing African American women who launched their careers during the 1960s Mad Men era and went on to achieve prominent careers This unique book chronicles the nature and significance of these women's accomplishments examines the opportunities and challenges they experienced and explores how they coped with the extensive inequities common in the advertising profession Using a biographical narrative approach this book examines the careers of these important African American women who not only achieved managerial positions in major mainstream advertising agencies but also established successful agencies bearing their own names Based on their words and memories this study reveals experiences which are intriguing triumphant bittersweet and sometimes tragic These women s stories comprise a vital part of the historical narrative on women and African Americans in advertising and will be instructive not only to scholars of advertising and marketing history but to future generations of advertising professionals
