The Afro Asian Century:

The Afro-Asian Century Andrew F. Jones, Nikhil Pal Singh, 2003 The Afro Asian Century begins the task of excavating a multitude of Afro Asian connections and collaborations in the twentieth century With few exceptions area studies and cultural studies have neglected or underestimated the significance of transethnic and transnational exchanges between African and Asian peoples By bringing instances of Afro Asian traffic in the realms of politics economics and culture to the foreground this collection maps an alternative global circuit The issue examines the non Eurocentric form of cosmopolitanism that emerged from creative encounters of racialized people in Jazz Age Paris the Harlem Renaissance and colonial Shanghai It reconceptualizes the Indian Ocean as a crucial site for Afro Asian cross pollination and investigates the cinematic culture of kung fu as a global discourse of Afro Asian anti imperialism Contributors Brent Edwards Andrew F Jones Yukiko Koshiro Bill Mullen Vijay Prashad William Schaefer Nikhil Pal Singh Fran oise Verg s Daniel Widener The Asian Century Jan

Romein, 2023-04-28 The Asian Century A History of Modern Nationalism in Asia examines the transformation of Asia from a region defined by disparate cultural traditions to one unified by its response to Western imperialism and its revolutionary embrace of modernity The author argues that until the 19th century Asia lacked a cohesive history fragmented into Islamic Hindu Buddhist and Sinic cultural spheres with limited interaction However European dominance from the 19th century onward imposed a new unity catalyzing a revolutionary period of political independence social transformation and scientific and technological progress The book traces Asia s rediscovery of its own identity through its engagement with Europe highlighting the pivotal 20th century movements that ended colonial rule and set the stage for modernization Central to this narrative are the revolutionary changes in Japan China India and other nations which embraced science reformed social structures and pursued political sovereignty The impact of the Russian Revolution and Soviet influence also played a critical role in shaping modern Asian societies While acknowledging the destructive legacy of colonialism the author also recognizes the infrastructure education and administrative frameworks introduced by imperial powers as factors that facilitated Asia s modernization The study integrates perspectives from across the continent including Soviet Asia and emphasizes the ongoing challenge of creating a global unity that transcends historical antagonisms Ultimately the work views the Asian revolution not only as a regional awakening but as a significant step toward the unification of humanity and a more equitable global order This title is part of UC Press s Voices Revived program which commemorates University of California Press s mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice reach and impact Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893 Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology This title was originally published in 1962 AfroAsian Encounters Heike Raphael-Hernandez, Shannon Steen, 2006-11 How might we understand yellowface performances by African Americans in 1930s swing adaptations of Gilbert and Sullivan s The Mikado Paul Robeson s support of Asian and Asian American struggles or the absorption of hip hop by Asian American youth culture

AfroAsian Encounters is the first anthology to look at the mutual influence of and relationships between members of the African and Asian diasporas in the Americas. While these two groups have often been thought of as occupying incommensurate if not opposing cultural and political positions, scholars from history, literature, media, and the visual arts here trace their interconnections and interactions as well as how they have been set in opposition by white systems of racial domination. AfroAsian Encounters probes beyond popular culture to trace the historical lineage of these coalitions from the post-Civil War era through the present. From the history of Japanese jazz composers to the current popularity of black Asian buddy films like Rush Hour, AfroAsian Encounters is a groundbreaking intervention into studies of race and ethnicity and a crucial look at the shifting meaning of race in America in the twenty-first century.

Asia Literate Schooling in the Asian Century Christine Halse, 2015-04-10 Globalization, migration, transnational movements, and the development of the tiger economies of Asia have led education leaders and policy makers around the world, but particularly in Australia, the USA, Canada, and New Zealand, to view schools as key sites for developing globally competent Asia-literate citizens who have the capabilities to live, work, and interact with the peoples, cultures, and societies of Asia. In what has been dubbed the Asian Century, nations are increasingly seeking to transform their schooling policies, curricula, and teaching workforces to engage with the growing influence of the peoples, cultures, and societies both within and beyond Asia. This is the first book to subject to critical scrutiny and analysis the concepts, policies, and practices of schooling involved in building intercultural relations with the diverse contemporary manifestations of Asia. It brings into dialogue scholars who are at the forefront of current thinking, policy, and practice on Asia-related schooling and contributes to a broader international debate about the future shape of intercultural schooling in a global world. Asia Literate Schooling in the Asian Century offers chapters on Learning Asia, In search of a new narrative, Asia Literacy as Experiential Learning, Professional Standards and Ethics in Teaching Asia, Literacy: The Feasibility of Implementing Cross-Curricular Studies of Asia, Deparochialising Education and the Asian Priority, A Curriculum Re-Imagination. This book will appeal to scholars and practitioners in Education and is suitable as a reference for teacher education courses. It will also interest scholars specialising in Asian Studies.

Living the Asian Century Kishore Mahbubani, 2024-08-13 In this stirring memoir, a preeminent politician and diplomat traces the transformation of the Republic of Singapore from a poor colony into an Asian powerhouse. Growing up in poverty in the 1950s, Kishore Mahbubani expected to become a common textile salesman after finishing high school. Instead, a government scholarship sent him to the University of Singapore, and four years later he found himself in the country's Ministry of Foreign Affairs. Meanwhile, almost none of Mahbubani's cousins scattered around the world after India's brutal partition from Guyana to Hong Kong would complete university. During this same period, Singapore itself was undergoing a metamorphosis: Granted internal self-governance in 1959 and achieving full independence six years later, the country came of age alongside Mahbubani. And as his star rose, so did the nation's. In Living the Asian Century, Mahbubani vividly chronicles his own life going from a poor childhood in a multiethnic neighborhood to an illustrious diplomatic career that led him far from Singapore from Cambodia to Australia Malaysia to the United States and the UN including the pinnacle of influence the Security Council Along the way Mahbubani has become one of Asia's most widely known commentators and spokespeople with a unique perspective that straddles India China and the West The Social Sciences in the Asian Century Carol Johnson, Vera Mackie, Tessa Morris-Suzuki, 2015-09-30 In this collection of essays we reflect on what it means to practise the social sciences in the twenty first century The book brings together leading social scientists from the Asia Pacific region We argue for the benefit of dialogue between the diverse theories and methods of social sciences in the region the role of the social sciences in addressing real world problems the need to transcend national boundaries in addressing regional problems and the challenges for an increasingly globalised higher education sector in the twenty first century The chapters are a combination of theoretical reflections and locally focused case studies of processes that are embedded in global dynamics and the changing geopolitics of knowledge In an increasingly connected world these reflections will be of global relevance
