The Age Of Flight The Story Of Naval Air Power:

Air Power in the Age of Total War John Buckley, 2006-05-09 Warfare in the first half of the 20th century was fundamentally and irrevocably altered by the birth and subsequent development of air power This work assesses the role of air power in changing the face of battle on land and sea Utilizing late 1990s research the author demonstrates that the phenomenon of air power was both a cause and a crucial accelerating factor contributing to the theory and practice of total war For instance the expansion of warfare to the homefront was a direct result of bombing and indirectly due to the extent of national economic mobilization required to support first rate air power status In addition the move away from the principle of total war with the onset of the Cold War and the replacement of air power by ICBMs is thoroughly examined This work should provide students of international history war studies defence and strategic studies with an insight into 20th century warfare Air University Library Index to Military Periodicals ,1999 Flying Magazine ,1939-09 Air University Periodical Index ,1958 Aerial Age Weekly ,1920 An Air Power Bibliography Raymond Estep,1956 Outline of a Suggested Junior College Program in General and Vocational Aviation United States.
