The Agrarian Revolt in Western Canada Paul F. Sharp, 1948 The Agrarian Revolt in Western Canada Paul F. Sharp, The Agrarian Revolt in Western Canada Paul Frederick Sharp, University of Regina. Canadian Plains Research Center, 1997 Originally published Minneapolis Univ of Minnesota Press 1948 The Agrarian Revolt in Western Canada Paul Frederick Sharp, 1971 The Agrarian Revolt in Western Canada Paul Sharp, 1948 This landmark study meticulously traces the evolution of the farmers movement on the prairies which led to the birth of the co operative movement and such populist political movements as the Progressive Party the Social Credit and the CCF NDP Out of print for almost 30 years The Agrarian Revolt has remained a primary resource for scholars studying the history of this region The trends which Sharp identified and examined continue to be crucial for an understanding of prairie politics today for the Reform Party now the Canadian Alliance Party is a direct ideological descendant of the earlier populist movements considered in The Agrarian Revolt The Agrarian Revolt in Western Canada Paul Frederick Sharp, 1948 Farm Workers in Western Canada Shirley A. McDonald, Bob Barnetson, 2017-01-16 Bill 6 the government of Alberta s contentious farm workers safety legislation sparked public debate as no other legislation has done in recent years The Enhanced Protection for Farm and Ranch Workers Act provides a right to work safely and a compensation system for those killed or injured at work similar to other provinces In nine essays contributors to Farm Workers in Western Canada place this legislation in context They look at the origins work conditions and precarious lives of farm workers in terms of larger historical forces such as colonialism land rights and racism They also examine how the rights and privileges of farm workers including seasonal and temporary foreign workers conflict with those of their employers and reveal the barriers many face by being excluded from most statutory employment laws sometimes in violation of the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms Contributors Gianna Argento Bob Barnetson Michael J Broadway Jill Bucklaschuk Delna Contractor Darlene A Dunlop Brynna Hambly Takasugi Zane Hamm Paul Kennett Jennifer Koshan C F Andrew Lau J Graham Martinelli Shirley A McDonald Robin C McIntyre Nelson Medeiros Kerry Preibisch Heidi Rolfe Patricia Tomic Ricardo Trumper and Kay Elizabeth Turner We Are All Treaty People Roger Epp, 2008-12-18 In his collection of Prairie essays Roger Epp considers what it means to dwell attentively and responsibly in the rural West We Are All Treaty People invites those who feel the pull of a prairie heritage to rediscover the poetry surging through the landscapes of the rural West among its people and their political economy Insurgent Democracy Michael J. Lansing, 2015-11-06 In 1915 western farmers mounted one of the most significant challenges to party politics America has seen the Nonpartisan League which sought to empower citizens and restrain corporate influence Before its collapse in the 1920s the League counted over 250 000 paying members spread to thirteen states and two Canadian provinces controlled North Dakota s state government and birthed new farmer labor alliances Yet today it is all but forgotten neglected even by scholars Michael J Lansing aims to change that Insurgent Democracy offers a new look at the Nonpartisan League and a new way to understand its rise and fall in the United States and Canada Lansing argues that rather than a spasm of populist rage that inevitably burned itself out the story of the League is in fact an instructive example of how popular movements can create lasting change Depicting the League as a transnational response to economic inequity Lansing not only resurrects its story of citizen activism but also allows us to see its potential to inform contemporary movements

The Borderlands of the American and Canadian Wests Sterling Evans, 2006-01-01

The Borderlands of the American and Canadian Wests is the first collection of interdisciplinary essays bringing together scholars from both sides of the forty ninth parallel to examine life in a transboundary region The result is a text that reveals the diversity difficulties and fortunes of this increasingly powerful but little understood part of the North American West Contributions by historians geographers anthropologists and scholars of criminal justice and environmental studies provide a comprehensive picture of the history of the borderlands region of the western United States and Canada The Borderlands of the American and Canadian Wests is divided into six parts Defining the Region Colonizing the Frontier Farming and Other Labor Interactions the Borderlands as a Refuge in the Nineteenth Century the Borderlands as a Refuge in the Twentieth Century and Natural Resources and Conservation along the Border Topics include the borderlands environment its aboriginal and gender history frontier interactions and comparisons agricultural and labor relations tourism the region as a refuge for Mormons far right groups and Vietnam War resisters and conservation and natural resources These areas show how the history and geography of the borderlands region has been transboundary multidimensional and unique within North America
