

An engraving depicting a dramatic scene with several figures in classical attire. In the foreground, a man in a dark tunic and a woman in a light, flowing dress are engaged in a struggle. The man is holding a long, thin object, possibly a sword or a staff, which the woman is also holding. In the background, other figures are visible, including a man holding a large, circular object. The scene is set in a classical architectural environment with columns and a pediment. The engraving is signed 'G. G. del.' in the bottom right corner.
