The Enormous Exception Meeting Christ In The Sermon On The Mount:

The Enormous Exception Earl F. Palmer, 2001 Every age needs its comfortable assumptions challenged by Scripture's unsettling call to live Christ's way hence the need for a fresh examination of the famed sermon of Jesus recorded in Matthew 5-7

Comparative Characterization in the Sermon on the Mount Arren Bennet Lawrence, 2017-03-24 The Sermon on the Mount contains many comparisons In this book the functions of these comparisons are studied by the methodology called comparative characterization Characterization is the way a character is characterized in a narrative Comparative characterization is the characterization of a character using comparisons In comparative characterization another character is used as a foil to bring out a characteristic trait of a concerned character Jesus characterized the ideal disciple in the Sermon on the Mount with many descriptions and imperatives To characterize the ideal disciple Jesus used many comparisons and highlighted the characteristic features that embody the ideal disciple The many comparisons used in the Sermon on the Mount are identified in this study through comparative characterization In addition the teleological purpose of the comparisons which is to play as foil to the characterization of the ideal disciple is identified and highlighted Thus this study identifies Jesus' characterization of the ideal disciple and his complex portrayal of the ideal disciple with the many uses of comparisons in the descriptions and imperatives of Jesus in the Sermon on the Mount

Radical Discipleship Roland Chia, 2006-08-14 The Sermon on the Mount is perhaps the most famous passage in the Gospel of Matthew Even unbelievers like Mahatma Gandhi appreciate the teaching of the Sermon and applaud the high morality it espouses Others see in statements like love your enemies and turn the other cheek a powerful rhetoric against war and violence Most Christians are familiar with the Sermon and see it as delineating important ethical principles for Christian living Familiarity with the Sermon however can ironically prevent Christians from understanding its true message and significance Some for instance see the Sermon merely as a body of ethical teachings that has some practical relevance Many find some of its imperatives too idealistic In this book Chia asks basic questions as he reflects on the Sermon on the Mount What is the main focus of the Sermon Does the Sermon present a code of conduct for Christians or is the Sermon really about the dawn of a new eschatological community inaugurated by Jesus Christ Chia maintains that the Sermon can be properly understood and its significance firmly grasped only when it is read in the light of Christ and God's eschatological kingdom The Sermon presents the attitude values and conduct of the new community that Christ has gathered in his name But this new reality that has dawned awaits fulfillment at the consummation of the kingdom of God In the ambivalence of the already and not yet the Sermon depicts Christian discipleship as an impossible possibility Yet the Sermon clearly challenges Christ's disciples to be a community of character and to embody an ethic which is inimical to that of the world

The Pastor's Library Robert A. Yost, 2017-09-21 In the spirit of Cyril Barber's classic work from the 1970s The Minister's Library Robert Yost provides students and pastors with expert guidance on building a working ministerial library From Old and New Testament languages lexical aids and grammatical tools to commentaries and theologies as well as pastoral resources Yost is a trustworthy guide through the multiplicity of books that seem to just keep rolling off the presses Far more than just a guide to commentaries as are so many works today this resource is a balanced pastoral tool for pastors and students who are overwhelmed by the proliferation of literature in the fields of biblical and pastoral studies

Biblical Principles of Leading and Managing Employees Bruce E. Winston, 2018-05-17 This book examines the scriptural concepts that apply to leading and managing people It begins with a chapter that contrasts leaders managers and administrators and the roles they each play The book then presents the seven virtues from the Beatitudes and how these virtues result in leaders and managers behaviors The book then reviews the 15 characteristics of what love is and what love is not from the 1 Corinthians 12 passage The book presents the four modalities of leaders as conveyed in the Ezekiel 1 and 10 chapters as well as Revelations 4 where Ezekiel and John describe the four faces of the winged beings The modalities are described in terms of contemporary leaders interacting with employees in the workplace A chapter follows based on the Parable of the Vineyard and how leaders should provide a minimum living wage The book then compares the wife in Proverbs 31 to a good leader manager in today's contemporary organization The book ends with an admonition from Ecclesiastes 3:1 about the need for leaders managers to step away and not meddle when the leader manager's role is finished Throughout the book composite case examples provide practical application of the concepts to contemporary organizations

Life in the Image of God Ronald C. Calhoun, 2013-09-06 The King has come The God of love planned reconciliation and transformation for the people he created He planned liberation from bondage for all creation through the life death and resurrected life of his Son Jesus Christ Jesus the King has come He has inaugurated the kingdom The Sermon on the Mount Matt 57 is the constitution of that kingdom The constitution is intended to make Christlike disciples The central dynamic of the constitution is godlike love and is based on his grace The Sermon begins with the essence of character which is the foundation of all relationships and conduct Who we are determines the influence we have and controls our conduct Our conduct is based on right relationships with God others self and the material world The Sermon is practical dealing with every aspect of life Our relationship with God is to be one of reverence and self discipline Our relationship to possessions calls for rejection of slavery to those possessions and to worry In relationship to self we must avoid destructive criticism and exercise discernment Many areas are discussed in our relationship to others such as murder sex retaliation and more Join me in the study of the kingdom constitution as it reveals how to live life in the image of God All who will may become a part of the kingdom by offering full allegiance to the King and by living life by the rule of godlike love

The Layperson's Library Robert A.
