The Europa Biographical Dictionary Of British Women Over 1000 Notable Women From Britains Past:

The Europa Biographical Dictionary of British Women Anne Crawford,1999-12-01 Contains detailed biographical information on over 1000 British women From Boudicca to Emmeline Pankhurst the book is primarily concerned with those women who helped to redefine the role of women at various points in history Rich in human interest it describes lives that exemplify courage dedication and idealism The Palgrave Macmillan Dictionary of Women's Biography J. Uglow,M. Hendry,2005-03-08 The Palgrave Macmillan Dictionary of Women s Biography contains details of the lives of over 2100 women from all periods cultures and walks of life from queens to TV chefs engineers to stand up comics pilots to poisoners With subsections for further reading comprehensive subject index and a bibliographical survey this dictionary of women s biography is an invaluable reference source Macmillan Dictionary of Women's Biography Jennifer Uglow,1991-06-27 The enthusiastic response to the Dictionary has prompted this second substantially enlarged revised and updated edition It now contains essential details of the lives of over 2000 women from all periods cultures and walks of life from queens to cooks engineers to entertainers pilots to poisoners The new entries include women who have hit the headlines in the past five years from Cory Aquino to Madonna but the historical coverage has also been broadened in response to new research and a special new feature is the extended treatment of women from Third World countries With subsections for further reading comprehensive subject index and bibliographical survey the Macmillan Dictionary of Women s Biography is an invaluable reference source and a fascinating bed time read British Women Poets of the Romantic Era Paula R. Feldman,2001-01-19 This groundbreaking volume not only documents the richness of their literary contributions but changes our thinking about the poetry of the English Romantic period The Northeastern Dictionary of Women's Biography Jennifer S. Uglow,1999 The most comprehensive reference book of its kind with more than 60 new entries in this third edition

Encyclopedia of Women Social Reformers Helen Rappaport,2001-12-06 The first comprehensive guide to women activists from every part of the world illuminating the broad range of women s struggles to reform society from the 18th century to the present Despite being marginalized disenfranchised impoverished and oppressed women have always stepped forward in disproportionate numbers to lead movements for social change This two volume encyclopedia documents the visions struggles and lives of women who have changed the world This encyclopedia celebrates the lives and achievements of nearly 300 women from around the globe women who have bravely insisted that the way things are is not the way they have to be Nadeshda Krupskaya the wife of Lenin spearheaded the drive against illiteracy in post revolutionary Russia American Dorothy Day founded the Catholic worker movement Begum Rokeya Hossain organized a girls school in Calcutta in 1911 Rachel Carson launched the modern environmental movement with her book Silent Spring The stories of these women and the hundreds of others collected here will restore missing pages to our history and inspire a new generation of women to change the world Romantic Women Writers Paula R. Feldman,Theresa M. Kelley,1995 Essays forging a new definition of Romanticism that includes the wide range of women's artistic expression The Continuum Dictionary of Women's Biography Jennifer S. Uglow, Frances Hinton, 1989 Writing, Gender and State in Early Modern England Megan Matchinske, 1998-05-28 The period from the Reformation to the English Civil War saw an evolving understanding of social identity in England This book uses four illuminating case studies to chart a discursive shift from mid sixteenth century notions of an individually generated spiritually motivated sense of identity to Civil War perceptions of the self as inscribed by the state and inflected according to gender a site of civil and sexual invigilation and control Each centres on the work of an early modern woman writer in the act of self definition and authorization in relation to external powers such as the Church and the monarchy Megan Matchinske's study illustrates the evolving relationships between public and private selves and the increasing role of gender in determining different identities for men and women The conjunction of gender and statehood in Matchinske's analysis represents an original contribution to the study of early modern identity The Less Noble Sex M. Jeanne Peterson, 1989-05-22 Physically frail badly educated girls brought up to lead useless lives as idle gentlewomen married to dominant husbands and relegated to separate spheres of life these phrases have often been used to describe Victorian upper middle class women M Jeanne Peterson rejects such formulations and the received wisdom they embody in favor of a careful examination of Victorian ladies and their lives Focusing on a network of urban professional families over three generations this book examines the scope and quality of gentlewomen's education their physical lives their relationship to money their experience of family illness and death and their relationships to men brothers and friends as well as fathers and husbands Peterson also examines the prominent place of work in the lives of these leisured Victorian ladies both single and married Far from idle the mothers wives and daughters of Victorian clergymen doctors lawyers university dons and others were accomplished and productive members of society who made substantial public and private contributions to virtually every sphere of Victorian life
