The Europa World Year 1996 Vol I Ii:

The Pivotal States Robert Chase, Emily Hill, Paul M. Kennedy, 1999 The foreign policy framework proposed here assumes that of the world's 140 developing states there is a group of pivotal states whose futures are poised at critical turning points and whose fates will strongly affect regional and even global security These nine states Indonesia India Pakistan Turkey Egypt South Africa Brazil Algeria and Mexico are the ones upon which the United States should focus its scarce foreign policy resources Events of the past year in Indonesia India and Pakistan have already affirmed the wisdom of this policy In a series of cogent original case studies area experts explore the pivotal states strategy for each of the nine states Global Peace and Anti-nuclear Movements Badruddin, 2003 This Book Presents In Depth Observation And Analysis Of Global Peace Movement Organizations Both In Historical As Well As Contemporary Dimension Europe Since 1945 Bernard A. Cook, 2014-01-27 Europe Since 1945 An Encyclopedia is a comprehensive reference work of some 1 700 entries in two volumes Its scope includes all of Europe and the successor states to the former Soviet Union The volumes provide a broad coverage of topics with an emphasis on politics governments organizations people and events crucial to an understanding of postwar Europe Also includes 100 maps and photos The Global South and comparative and international education Charl C. Wolhuter , 2023-04-30 This book proposes and unpacks the construct Criticism against Northern Hegemony in the scholarly field of Comparative and International Education as bringing together a number of related strands in the field and as showing a promising future trajectory for the evolution of the field namely the affirmation of the Global South This construct captures a significant amount of what leading scholars in the field of Comparative and International Education are currently engaged with It also expresses a view of both the current epoch of education as well as of the societal contextual imperatives shaping education Criticism against Northern Hegemony in the field comes to the fore in a number of related strands in the current discourse in the field This scholarly book originates from the Research Unit of Human Rights Education in Diversity at North West University South Africa where the author is affiliated The book is grounded in the Creed for Human Rights From this perspective the book advocates for a new phase in the historical development of the field with a focus on advancing the affirmation of the Global South as a central moral foundation The author envisions that this shift will represent a significant advancement in Comparative and International Education propelling it to an unprecedented stage of value and importance The Last Colonies Robert Aldrich, John Connell, 1998-07-13 This comprehensive and authoritative book is about the last colonies those remaining territories formally dependent on metropolitan powers It discusses the surprisingly large number of these territories mainly small isolated islands with limited resources Yet these places are not as obscure as might be expected They may be major tourist destinations military bases satellite tracking stations tax havens or desolate underpopulated spots that can become international flashpoints such as the Falklands The authors find that at a time of escalating nationalism and globalization these remnants of empire provide insights into the meanings of political economic legal and cultural independence as well as sovereignty and nationhood This book provides a broad based and provocative discussion of colonialism and interdependence in the modern world from a unique perspective Privatization and the Crisis of Agricultural Extension: The Case of
