David Cronon, John W. Jenkins, 1994-10-31 This third volume of the history of the University of Wisconsin Politics Depression and War 1925 1945 continues the history of the famous institution that has become today s University of Wisconsin Madison It carries the story forward from 1925 to the end of World War II as the University was planning for the post war influx of returning veterans Volumes I and II by Professors Merle Curti and Vernon Carstensen were published in 1949 as part of the University's centennial celebration In Volume III E David Cronon and John W Jenkins provide a lively and readable account of the significant political social and educational transformations between 1925 and 1945 emphasizing the effect of Wisconsin's partisan politics on the University the growth of the faculty's role in institutional governance the development of close knit faculty and student communities and the ways in which the University maintained and even enhanced its scholarly reputation in a difficult era of history The authors also look at the expansion of University outreach activities especially the development of a major instructional center in Milwaukee later to become the University of Wisconsin Milwaukee extension centers throughout the state and the new medium of educational broadcasting through the university station WHA considered the oldest station in the nation Read alone or in conjunction with the first two volumes this is a thorough and absorbing history for anyone interested in this remarkable institution Current faculty alumni students and Wisconsin residents will find here a wealth of information enhanced by many historical photographs An engaging additional feature are the cartoons caricatures and sketches from student publications that reveal a student perspective on the people and events of the period
