indigenous peoples cannot be separated from political rights the conceptual differences between the human rights concepts underlying the modern international system and the concepts behind human rights as these are understood in the Guatemalan Highlands and the relationship between the rights of indigenous peoples and upcoming new standards of environmental law Real Property in Australia Michael J. Hefferan, 2020-08-17 Real property in the form of investment ownership and use pervades almost every aspect of daily lives and represents over 40% of Australia's wealth Such assets do not exist in isolation they are dynamic and forever evolving impacted by a range of physical economic demographic legal and other forces Consequently a true appreciation of individual assets and of the property sector as a whole demands an understanding of both the assets themselves and the context and markets in which they exist The sector is complex and on the face of it confusing It is however not without logic and underlying themes and principles This book provides a wider understanding of how the real property sector works It covers topics such as the nature of real property and its functions economic drivers valuation principles legal and tenure parameters property taxation land development and subdivision asset and property management and sustainability all critical components in this complex and critically important sector It provides a wide and balanced perspective for experienced practitioners investors students and anyone involved in property decision making or wishing to secure a deeper understanding of these areas The book integrates research based theory with practical application and first hand insights into a sector that underpins the Australian economy its communities and its sustainability Nature Sir Norman Lockyer, 1915 The Face of the Earth J. Donald Hughes, 2015-05-11 Although the organizing principle of virtually every world history text is development the editor of this volume maintains that this traditional approach fails to address the issue of sustainability By adopting the ecological process as their major theme the authors show how the process of human interaction with the natural environment unfolded in the past and offer perspective on the ecological crises in our world at the beginning of the 21st century Topics range from broad regional studies that examine important aspects of the global environment that affect nations to a study of the widespread influence of one important individual on his nation and beyond The authors take different approaches but all share the conviction that world history must take ecological process seriously and they all recognize the ways in which the living and non living systems of the earth have influenced the course of human affairs
