The Face of the Abbot L. T. Meade, Robert Eustace, 2004-06-01

During the remainder of the evening this extraordinary case occupied my thoughts to the exclusion of almost everything else I made up my mind to take it up to set every inquiry on foot and above all things to ascertain if there was a physical reason for the apparition's appearance in short if Mr Sherwood's awful death was for the benefit of any living person But I must confess that think as I would I could not see the slightest daylight until I remembered the curious expression of De Castro's face when he spoke of his appointment with a lady
