Countdown to D-Day: The German Perspective Peter Margaritis, 2019-01-04 A WWII historian takes readers inside the day to day drama of Nazi military commanders in occupied Europe as they brace for the Allied invasion In December of 1943 with Allied forces planning to invade Fortress Europe Field Marshal Erwin Rommel is named General Inspector of the Atlantic Wall His mission is to assess their readiness and what he finds disgusts him The famed Atlantikwall is nothing but a paper tiger woefully unprepared for the forces being massed across the English Channel His task to turn back the Allied invasion already seems hopeless The crust old theater commander Field Marshal Gerd von Rundstedt awaits the inevitable defeat from a plush villa outside Paris The corps commander on the ground in Normandy attempts to fulfill Rommel s demands but supplies are woefully inadequate Meanwhile all focus is on defending the coastline at Calais the area that High Command believes to be the Allies most likely objective All of the Western Theater commanders are subject to the whims of Adolf Hitler hundreds of miles away and issuing orders that are increasingly divorced from the reality of the war Countdown to D Day takes a detailed day to day journal approach tracing the daily activities and machinations of the German High Command as they try to prepare for the Allied invasion
