This collection is conceived as a series of dialogues and inquiries by leading scholars from both image and sound-based disciplines. Chapters explore the history and the future of moving image media across a range of formats including blockbuster films, video games, music videos, social media, digital visualization technologies, experimental film, documentaries, video art, pornography, immersive theater and electronic music. Sound, music and noise emerge within these studies as integral forces within shifting networks of representation. The essays in this collection span a range of disciplinary approaches: film studies, musicology, philosophy, cultural studies, the digital humanities and subjects of study. Iranian documentaries, the Twilight franchise, military combat footage and Lady Gaga videos. Thematic sections and direct exchanges among authors facilitate further engagement with the debates invoked by the text.
