Transforming Public Space through Play Gregor Mews,2022-04-21 This book provides an empirical analysis of the concept of play as a form of spatial practice in urban public spaces The introduced City Play Framework CPF is a practical urban analysis tool that allows urban designers landscape architects and researchers to develop a shared awareness when opening up this window of possibility for adventure Two case studies substantiate and illustrate the development process and testing of the framework in Canberra Australia and Potsdam Germany The appropriation of public spaces that transcend boundaries can facilitate an intrinsic connection between people and their immediate environment towards a more joyful ontological state of human existence in which imagination co creation and a sense of agency are key elements of the design approach The framework presents an alternative understanding of public spaces and public life reflecting on theory and its implications for practice in a post pandemic world in dense urban centres A bridge between theory and practice this book explores possibilities on what future design ought to be when openness and ambiguity are consciously integrated parts of practice and process The book presents a valuable discussion on public space and play for academic audiences across a wide range of disciplines such as landscape architecture urban design planning architecture and urban sociology which is informative for future practice The Sociology of Space Martina Löw, 2016-09-09 In this book the author develops a relational concept of space that encompasses social structure the material world of objects and bodies and the symbolic dimension of the social world L w s guiding principle is the assumption that space emerges in the interplay between objects structures and actions Based on a critical discussion of classic theories of space L w develops a new dynamic theory of space that accounts for the relational context in which space is constituted This innovative view on the interdependency of material social and symbolic dimensions of space also permits a new perspective on architecture and urban development Dr. Calhoun's Mousery Lee Alan Dugatkin, 2024-10-03 A bizarre and compelling biography of a scientist and his work using rodent cities to question the potential catastrophes of human overpopulation It was the strangest of experiments What began as a utopian environment where mice had sumptuous accommodations had all the food and water they could want and were free from disease and predators turned into a mouse hell Science writer and animal behaviorist Lee Alan Dugatkin introduces readers to the peculiar work of rodent researcher John Bumpass Calhoun In this enthralling tale Dugatkin shows how an ecologist turned psychologist turned futurist became a science rock star embedded in the culture of the 1960s and 1970s As interest grew in his rodent cities Calhoun was courted by city planners and his work was reflected in everything from Tom Wolfe s hard hitting writing to the children s book Mrs Frisby and the Rats of NIMH He was invited to meetings with the Royal Society and the pope and taken seriously when he proposed a worldwide cybernetic brain a decade before others made the internet a reality Readers see how Calhoun s experiments rodent apartment complexes like Mouse Universe 25 led to his concept of behavioral sinks with real effects on public policy discussions Overpopulation in Calhoun s mouse and rat complexes led to the loss of sex drive the absence of maternal care and a class of automatons that included the beautiful ones who spent their time grooming themselves while shunning socialization Calhoun and those who followed his work saw the collapse of this mouse population as a harbinger of the ill effects of an overpopulated human world Drawing on previously unpublished archival research and interviews with Calhoun s family and former colleagues Dugatkin offers a riveting account of an intriguing scientific figure Considering Dr Calhoun s experiments he explores the changing nature of scientific research and delves into what the study of animal behavior can teach us about ourselves The Impacts of Green Space on Student Experience at an Urban Community College Vanita Naidoo, 2022-07-19 This book presents a rich case study examining physical and spatial factors of urban campus design that influence student experience and wellbeing The text details important historical context illustrating the foundational concepts and purpose of college sites in the United States and maps economic reforms and policies which have driven the development of today s inner city campuses Focusing on Bronx Community College New York and looking specifically at how the presence or absence of green space impacts students the text then draws on diverse student voices to examine how students use open spaces and how this influences their sense of belonging stress reduction and scholarly identities The author s historical and qualitative research presents original insights and relies on a rich body of textual and on site investigation This book will be a valuable resource for researchers and academics with an interest in urban education and higher education It will be of particular interest to those with a focus on multicultural education and education policy The A.S.M.R. Asheru Romancha,2024-02-12 This book shows the automatic spontaneous intelligent design from a feedback loop between the right hemisphere matching by form and the resulting sacred fractal geometry of self similar sexual mimicry in the four dimensional human body He shows how this is done through the ASMR and thrill intelligence The missing link is no longer missing His book is a magnum opus on the alchemy of this subject Louis I. Kahn Per Olaf Fjeld,Emily Randall Fjeld,2019-10-04 Louis I Kahn The Nordic Latitudes is a new and personal reading of the architecture teachings and legacy of Louis I Kahn from Per Olaf Fjeld s perspective as a former student The book explores Kahn s life and work offering a unique take on one of the twentieth century s most important architects Kahn s Nordic and European ties are emphasized in this study that also covers his early childhood in Estonia his travels and his relationships with other architects including the Norwegian architect Arne Korsmo The authors have gathered personal reflections archival material and other student work to offer insight into the wisdom that Kahn imparted to his students in his famous masterclass Louis I Kahn The Nordic Latitudes addresses Kahn s legacy both personally and in terms of the profession documents a research trip the University of Pennsylvania s Louis I Kahn Collection and confronts the affiliation of Kahn s work with postmodernism Ethics in Design and Communication Laura Scherling,Andrew DeRosa,2020-02-20 This timely collection brings together critical analytic historical and practical studies to address what ethics means in the practice of design Designers face the same challenges as everyone else in the complex conditions of contemporary cultural life choices about consumption waste exploitation ecological damage and political problems built into the supply chains on which the global systems of inequity currently balance precariously But designers face the additional dilemma that their paid work is often entangled with promoting the same systems such critical approaches seek to redress how to reconcile this contradiction among others in seeking to chart an ethical course of action while still functioning effectively in the world Ethics in Design and Communication acknowledges the complexity of this subject matter while also demonstrating that in the ongoing struggle towards an equitable and sustainable world the talents of design and critical thought are essential Featured case studies include graphic design internships today the dark web and media coverage of the 2016 US presidential election The fact that within this book such a wide array of practitioners scholars critics and professionals commit to addressing current injustices is already a positive sign Nonetheless it is essential that we guard against confusing the coercive force of moral imperatives with ethical deliberation when conceiving a foundation for action
