THE GOLD THREAD and WEE DAVIE - two children's stories each with a moral Norman Macleod, 2020-11-04

Herein are two illustrated children s stories each with a moral by Norman Macleod 1812 1872

In THE GOLD THREAD Prince Eric loses his way in the Hemlock Forest where a wicked robber king and his band of cutthroats and thieves live The prince must learn the lessons of the Gold Thread if he is ever to return home to see his father the good King Magnus again Through his failures and victories he follows his gold thread through the forest On his journey he must turn aside temptation and enticements of all kinds and follow the Gold Thread whatever the danger But what is the Gold Thread Well you will have to download and read the story to find out

WEE DAVIE is a lovely story about how a child brought about an amazing change in the village into which he was born He was the only child of William Thorburn blacksmith and of Jeanie his wife First the bonnie bairn brought a change to his father and later to his mother as well In time his goodness and influence spread to his neighbours and then into the village itself Yet Wee Davie the name by which he had been known since birth remained with him as he grew older He had a knack for reconciling the village Tories and the more radical elements in the village whom it seemed had been at loggerheads ever since politics had been invented Unexpectedly one day wee Davie became ill and he began to refuse his food His parents sat with him and nursed him day and night What ails Willie was the question villagers asked to which no reply could be given Not even the Doctor could save him and one beautiful morning in spring with a bright blue sky living air springing grass and singing birds Wee Davie left our world His passing left a large void in the fabric of village society and for years to come he was spoken about with love and affection

FOREST FAIRY BOOK - 11 Illustrated children's tales from long, long ago Loretta Ellen Brady,2018-09-15 Herein are 11 tales taken from the time when the earth was young In those days indeed the grown folk all loved wonder tales as well as children love them now and were not worse because of it Sometimes these wonder tales were told by magic chairs or chests sometimes by birds or beasts that were enchanted and had power of speech It is from these wonder tales that these 11 stories have been selected The stories in this volume are I Dame Grumble and Her Curious Apple Tree II A Tale of the Northland Kingdom III The Little Tree that Never Grew Up IV The Tale of Punchinello V The Strange Tale of the Brown Bear VI The Beggar Princess VII Sweep and Little Sweep VIII Kings and Queens and Peasant Folk IX The Goose Girl and the Blue Gander X The Little Brown Man XI A Tale for Halloween These tales are from long long ago when all the world was young and there were but few people dwelling on it the strangest things would often come to pass This was the time when fairyfolk still lived in the greenwoods and elves sang and danced in the soft summer dawns Then trees could sing and flowers speak and birds would carry messages about the world wild beasts were not always wild and ferocious and were often loyal friends to men and helped them in their difficulties In these old days most noble dukes and earls would fall in love with dairymaids whose gentle ways and manners charmed their hearts Sometimes great kings grew weary of the splendor of their courts and left their thrones to live a simple life Each princess had a fairy godmother who showered her with magic gifts Wise men read the stars and seers would gaze in crystal bowls to tell the coming good or ill they saw In those old days the housewives left a bit of bread and cheese upon the pantry shelf each evening that the brownie who was said to dwell in every kitchen might have a midnight feast These brownies twas said also would make much mischief if they were not treated very well In early dawns when fields of flowers were a sparkle with dew and sunlight the milkmaids used to bathe their eyes and ears with dew that they might see the fairyfolk forever afterward and hear them sing at midnight in the surrounding glens The farmers boys would search among the hedges in hopes of meeting The Red Caps who were said to bring much luck These Red Caps too were said to give a magic purse of gold to those they fancied a purse that was always brimful no matter what was spent from it Witches still rode broomsticks through the skies and there were wishing wells and magic charms and spells So we invite you to curl up with this unique sliver of Fairy culture not seen in print for over a century and immerse yourself in the tales and fables of yesteryear CHALLENGE Every story is terminated with an illustrated tailpiece In this book it is an illustration of mushrooms and plants See if you can help young readers spot which illustration they have been taken from 10% of the net sale will be donated to charities by the publisher TAGS fairy tales folklore myths legends children s stories children s stories bygone era fairydom fairy land classic stories children s bedtime stories happy place happiness top of the morning Princess Dame Grumble Curious Apple Tree Northland Kingdom Little Tree Never Grow Up Punchinello Strange Tale Brown Bear Beggar Princess Sweep Little Sweep Kings Queens Peasant Folk Goose Girl Blue Gander Little Brown Man Halloween when the world was young long long ago magic chairs magic chest speaking birds beasts enchanted enchantments power of speech
