The Air Attache In The American Embassy:

The Air Attache in the American Embassy Thomas Canady, Jr., 2005-04-01 In this book the author relates experiences derived from two assignments as an air attache on duty in a United States embassy The first was as an assistant attache in Indonesia during a period when relations between Indonesia and the United States were severely strained Anti Americanism ran rampant at the time and was manifested by frequent hostile demonstrations before the American Embassy in Djakarta The second assignment as air attache was in Spain in a totally different atmosphere where Americans were welcomed Thus the author is able to describe attache duty from two entirely different perspectives Between attache assignments the author served as a Plans action officer in Air Force Headquarters in the Pentagon and as director of operations of an air transport unit in Vietnam These periods are also described
