say that without vibrant thoughts fire within vigorous practice cleaning mental cobwebs in the subject and esoteric opportunities it is difficult to have gravity in the subject It is only by earnest endeavour one's task gets accomplished and not by just planning The exercises have been so easily and meticulously prepared that the requirements of the students may be met with fairly and squarely It is suitable enough to make the learners interested in learning I strongly believe that no obstacle in insurmountable Hardships and obstacles are not meant to be evaded but to be mastered I wish the students all the very best for their future endeavours

The English Bowman in the Hundred Years War M J Trow, 2025-10-30 They were often half starved marching through an alien land with few signposts and no maps They were often suffering from dysentery their legwear rolled down and they sometimes fought naked from the waist down They were paid 6d a day the same as a civilian craftsman and they swore like the troopers they were That was why the French called them the Goddamns and king and peasant alike were terrified of them With their yew wood bows and ash arrows a clothyard long they were the victors in countless clashes during the Hundred Years War and in the three great battles of Crecy Poitiers and Agincourt They robbed pillaged raped and murdered often in their king's name Yet they won battles and it is no exaggeration to say that England became a powerful nation state because of them If they were caught in action by the enemy they would have their bow fingers cut off and their throats slit We know the names of very few of them They were not worthy of ransom unlike the knights they fought for Most of them ended up in mass burial pits or some unmarked plot beside a French road The vast majority was illiterate so we have no firsthand accounts of their campaigns from the bowmen themselves For all they won battles and renown for all they helped indirectly to increase the power of the common man they are like ghosts drifting over the battlefield They were the bowmen
