The Expanded Voice Stanley Stewart,1970-01-01 The Expanded Voice: the Art of Thomas Traherne Stanley Stewart,1970 The Expanded Voice: the Art of Thomas Traherne Stanley Stewart,1970 Thomas Traherne and Seventeenth-century Thought Elizabeth S. Dodd,Cassandra Gorman,2016 New essays on Thomas Traherne challenge traditional critical readings of the poet Thomas Traherne and the Felicities of the Mind , Boundless Innocence in Thomas Traherne's Poetic Theology Elizabeth S. Dodd,2016-03-16 The seventeenth century poet and divine Thomas Traherne finds innocence in every stage of existence He finds it in the chaos at the origins of creation as well as in the blessed order of Eden He finds it in the activities of grace and the hope of glory but also in the trials of misery and even in the abyss of the Fall Boundless Innocence in Thomas Traherne s Poetic Theology traces innocence through Traherne s works as it transgresses the boundaries of the estates of the soul Using grammatical and literary categories it explores various aspects of his poetic theology of innocence uncovering the boundless desire which is embodied in the yearning cry Were all Men Wise and Innocent Recovering and reinterpreting a key but increasingly neglected theme in Traherne s poetic theology this book addresses fundamental misconceptions of the meaning of innocence in his work Through a contextual and theological approach it indicates the unexplored richness complexity and diversity of this theme in the history of literature and theology Non-dualism in Eckhart, Julian of Norwich and Traherne James Charlton,2012-10-25 The words me mine you yours can mislead us into feeling separate from other people This book is an exhilarating contribution to the spirituality of non duality or non separation Meister Eckhart Mother Julian of Norwich and Thomas Traherne are interpreted as theopoets of the body soul who share a moderate non dualism Their work is brought within the ambit of non dual Hinduism Specifically their passion for unitive spiritual experience is linked to construals of both the Self and Awakening as enunciated by Advaita Vedanta Charlton draws on poetry theology and philosophy to perceive fresh connections A commonality of interest is proposed between the three Europeans and Ramana Maharshi The concept of non duality is basic to much of Asian religion On the other hand Christianity has usually ignored its own non dual roots This text contributes to a recovery in the West of the vital unifying power of non dual awareness and connectedness Getting Published in the Humanities Jeffrey Kahan,2014-01-10 In academia the mantra publish or perish is more than a cliché In most humanities fields securing tenure proves impossible without at least one book under your belt Yet despite the obvious importance of academic publishing the process remains an enigma to most young scholars In this helpful guide a seasoned author offers essential advice for novice academic writers seeking publication He explains why not all publications are equal why e books are not as widely respected as printed books in the academic world how to schedule publications prior to tenure how to spot a publishable idea how to approach the right publisher and a host of other useful tips that greatly increase one s chances of publication By outlining a step by step

approach to publishing this indispensable manual removes much of the mystery surrounding an essential component of an academic career

Pastoral Process Susan Snyder, 1998 Pastoral Process draws a basic distinction between two aspects of the pastoral ideal the Arcadian pastoral which locates the unspoiled paradise in space apart from the complexities of city and court and finds it accessible for limited periods of recuperation and reorientation and the Golden Age mode which locates the ideal pastoral life in time gone by always already lost as soon as it is apprehended as paradise The author's central aim is an archaeology of the nostalgia based pastoral of the vanished Golden Age On the surface level her close readings of certain Renaissance poems and sequences Spenser's Shepherdes Calender Marvell's Mower poems and Milton's Lycidas clarify pastoral process the dislocating transition from innocence to experience from secure centeredness in a comfortable self mirroring world to a new condition of division displacement and alienation The advent of individuation and sexual desire and the internalization of undirectional time and universal death transform the pastoral paradise into a wasteland or leave the newly self conscious protagonist outside his former idyll looking in Excavation beneath these initial readings uncovers the master myth of Eden that informs them as well as parallel narratives of loss such as the various accounts of the Golden Age or the tale in Plato's Symposium of beings fallen from original wholeness into fragmentation and lack Ramifications of the master myth include Christian and Jewish commentaries that helped shape traditional understandings of the story and especially the subversive tradition that persisted against the strong tide of orthodox interpretation in reading the Fall of Man in terms of childhood wholeness breaking down in the wake of sexual knowledge and the burden of full separated consciousness Below the poetic utterances and the shaping myths lies the deeper archaeological stratum of the unconscious and the mechanisms that construct always retrospectively and often counterfactually a blissful childhood Beyond Freud's own theories later offshoots and reworkings of his psychology are invoked to explore psychological experiences and needs that inform both myths and poems Jung the developmental psychologists and especially Lacan The study concludes by returning to the surface to consider the pastoral impulse in historical terms as a defining moment in the careers of Spenser Marvell and Milton and as a special urgency in the early modern times they inhabited
