The Eye Of Conscience Photographers And Social Change:

The Eye of Conscience Milton Meltzer, Bernard Cole, 1974 The Positive Image C. Jane Gover, 1988-01-01 The Positive Image tells the largely untold story of women photographers in turn of the century America Women like Gertrude Kasebier Frances Benjamin Johnston Alice Austen Catherine Weed Ward and Eva Watson Sch tze were among thousands of women who as professional and amateur photographers sought personal artistic and professional fulfillment while still connected to the traditional domestic environment These women created a positive experience for themselves in photography through an identifiable female network of women photographers through membership in camera clubs and in many cases through their association with photography great Alfred Stieglitz Theirs became an alliance between women art culture and technology in a time of intense social change in the United States Disappearing Witness Gretchen Garner, 2003-07-25

In documenting this transformation in American photography Disappearing Witness forcefully rethinks the history of photography itself The Focal Encyclopedia of Photography Michael R. Peres, 2013-05-29 This volume is a complete revision of the 1996 third edition shares the ever changing breadth of photographic topics with a special emphasis on digital imaging and contemporary issues Produced by an international team of photographic and imaging experts with collaboration from the George Eastman House the world s oldest photography museum this fourth edition contains essays and photographic reproductions sharing information where photography and imaging serve a primary role ranging from the atomic to the cosmic Catalog of Copyright Entries. Third Series Library of Congress. Copyright Office, 1976

American Studies Jack Salzman, 1986-08-29 This is an annotated bibliography of 20th century books through 1983 and is a reworking of American Studies An Annotated Bibliography of Works on the Civilization of the United States published in 1982 Seeking to provide foreign nationals with a comprehensive and authoritative list of sources of information concerning America it focuses on books that have an important cultural framework and does not include those which are primarily theoretical or methodological It is organized in 11 sections anthropology and folklore art and architecture history literature music political science popular culture psychology religion science technology medicine and sociology Each section contains a preface introducing the reader to basic bibliographic resources in that discipline and paragraph length non evaluative annotations Includes author title and subject indexes ISBN 0 521 32555 2 set 150 00 The Concise Focal Encyclopedia of Photography Michael Peres, 2014-06-20 Defining photography is impossible Revealing it is another matter and that s what The Concise Focal Encyclopedia of Photography does with each turn of the page History The technical origins and evolution of photography are half of the story The other half consists of the ways that cultural forces have transformed photography into a constellation of practices more diverse than any other mode of representation Photographers can tell a more in depth story through a photo like Dorothea Lange s Migrant Mother than a journalist ever could with the written word alone Major themes and practitioners Over 25 entries many with supporting illustrations examine the figures trends and ideas that have contributed most heavily to the history and current state of photography Contemporary issues The issues influencing photography today are more complex than at any other time in its history Questions of ethics desire perception digitization and commercialization all vie for attention Hear what the experts have to say about crucial issues such as whether or not the images we take today will last the test of time and if so how When material is covered this skillfully concise is no compromise The Concise Focal Encyclopedia of Photography is packed with useful information compelling ideas and best of all pure pleasure

Calling Home Janet Zandy, 1990 Working class women are the majority of women in the United States and yet their work and their culture are rarely visible Calling Home is an anthology of writings by and about working class women Over fifty selections represent the ethnic racial and geographic diversity of working class experience This is writing grounded in social history not in the academy Traditional boundaries of genre and periodization collapse in this collection which includes reportage oral histories speeches songs and letters as well as poetry stories and essays The divisions in this collection telling stories bearing witness celebrating solidarity address the distinction of by or about working class women and show the connections between individual identity and collective sensibility in a common history of struggle for economic justice The geography of home identity parents sex motherhood the dominance of the job the overlapping of private and public worlds the promise of solidarity and community are a few of the themes of this book Here is a chorus of working class women s voices Sandra Cisneros Barbara Garson Meridel Le Sueur Tillie Olsen Barbara Smith Endesha I M Holland Mother Jones Nellie Wong Agnes Smedley Bobbie Louise Hawkins Sharon Doubiago Carol Tarlen Hazel Hall Margaret Randall Judy Grahn and many others The aesthetic impulse is shaped by class but not limited to one ruling class What connects these writers is a collective consciousness a class which rejects bondage and lays claim to liberation through all the possibilities of language Calling Home is illustrated with family photographs as well as images of working women by professional photographers

Notable American Women Barbara Sicherman, Carol Hurd Green, 1980 Modeled on the Dictionary of American Biography this set stands alone but is a good complement to that set which contained only 700 women of 15 000 entries The preparation of the first set of Notable American Women was supported by Radcliffe College It includes women from 1607 to those who died before the end of 1950 only 5 women included were born after 1900 Arranged throughout the volumes alphabetically entries are from 400 to 7 000 words and have bibliographies There is a good introductory essay and a classified list of entries in volume three
