his wrist watch three minutes of seven The Angelus had rung at six as always and my lord D Evreux had been awakened by it as always At least Sir Pierre could not remember any time in the past seventeen years when my lord had not awakened at the Angelus Once he recalled the sacristan had failed to ring the bell and the Count had been furious for a week Only the intercession of Father Bright backed by the Bishop himself had saved the sacristan from doing a turn in the dungeons of Castle D Evreux Sir Pierre stepped out into the corridor walked along the carpeted flagstones and cast a practiced eye around him as he walked These old castles were difficult to keep clean and my lord the Count was fussy about nitre collecting in the seams between the stones of the walls All appeared quite in order which was a good thing My lord the Count had been making a night of it last evening and that always made him the more peevish in the morning Though he always woke at the Angelus he did not always wake up sober Sir Pierre stopped before a heavy polished carved oak door selected a key from one of the many at his belt and turned it in the lock Then he went into the elevator and the door locked automatically behind him He pressed the switch and waited in patient silence as he was lifted up four floors to the Count s personal suite
