The Face Of Death:

Faces of Your Soul Elise Dirlam Ching, Kaleo Ching, 2014-01-14 In Faces of Your Soul Elise Dirlam Ching and Kaleo Ching combine art and archetypes meditation and acupuncture guided imagery journaling and many different creative processes in a collage of healing knowledge and wisdom The authors start by stressing the balance of complementary opposites left brain right brain challenge comfort practicality the sacred as crucial to beginning the journey Then through guided imagery they lead readers through subconscious realms to connect with archetypal sources of inner wisdom This process frees the creative and healing spirit connecting explorers with the body's instinctive intelligence which expresses itself through the creation of art Central to this process is a detailed description of maskmaking including how to work with a partner to mold each other's gauze mask balanced with self explorations of the inner experience of this event Poetry personal stories photographs and a gallery of Kaleo Ching's evocative totemic masks expand the reader's experience of this richly resonant journey to self

Hans Holbein's Celebrated Dance of Death Henry Noel Humphreys, 1868 The Face of Africa Stan Chu Ilo, 2012-12-01 This book is a call on Africans and non Africans to once more believe in the possibility of a better future for Africa In these pages Stan Chu Ilo writes of his experience and the experiences of many young Africans like himself who are disturbed by the present condition of Africa He writes about the challenges facing most Africans who are growing up in the African continent without any hope of quality education without any guarantee of adequate food water housing and clothing without any hope of getting a job and without any prospect of living in peace with their neighbors He writes of the sad situation of millions of young Africans who are dying of malaria and HIV AIDS and the African women whose fate and fortune have been shackled by a male dominated society He questions the bases of the existence of the failed states of Africa who are caught up in a cycle of violence and disorder and who are not asking the right questions about the future of their nations He argues that corruption excessive authoritarianism a stubborn hold on power and lack of openness to consensus building among some African leaders insult the cultural value of Africans with regard to a sense of community love and solidarity He also writes of the pain of globalization the debt burden immigration and trade restrictions on Africans and African countries exploitation of ordinary Africans by fellow Africans and Western governments and business conglomerates He wonders why many Western nations should turn their backs on Africa when they all share some responsibility in bringing Africa to her knees However even though many Africans have become exhausted in the battle for national survival and for a living space to pursue their ordered ends this book proposes that Africans should not claim perpetual victimhood rather they should stand up once more and work for a better tomorrow which is possible and within their reach Ilo insists that the imposing mountains of economic and social ruin the rising moans and groans of numberless Africans should not weaken the inner energy and ardent hopes of millions of Africans struggling against the untested assumption that the cracking social political and economic foundations of present day Africa are incapable of supporting the structures of a new Africa The face of Africa

today is ugly but behind the ugly face is the beauty that has been distorted by historical and cultural factors The present condition of Africa is only the sign of the urgent need for the peoples of Africa to brace up for the long and hard journey to reclaim their future Ilo outlines how non Africans who are interested in the African condition can be involved with the peoples of Africa A proper understanding of the African continent and her peoples her history and cultural evolution is a necessary first step for those who wish to be engaged with the Africans His total picture approach model as the key to interpreting the African condition and in comprehensively addressing the challenges facing Africa offers a helpful and original tool in understanding Africa It helps to overcome the stereotypes prejudices and paternalism which non Africans apply in their reading of African history and their relation with the African reality With masterly skills a keen sense of history a balanced perspective and objectivity Ilo identifies the constraints to growth and innovation in Africa in terms of the low stocks in the human capital and cultural development He introduces a new concept in the interpretation of the African condition homelessness in terms of cultural and existential crises that confront Africans today His conclusion is that cultural and human development is the irreducible decimal in any proposal for the transformation of the continent that grassroots village based action should be preferred over bogus and unworkable national approaches to African development

The Thought of Death and the Memory of War Marc Crépon, 2013-10-01 War lays bare death and our relation to it And in the wars or more precisely the memories of war of the twentieth century images of the deaths of countless faceless or nameless others eclipse the singularity of each victim s death as well as the end of the world as such that each death signifies Marc Cr pon s The Thought of Death and the Memory of War is a call to resist such images in which death is no longer actual death since it happens to anonymous others and to seek instead a world in which mourning the other whose mortality we always already share points us toward a cosmopolitics Cr pon pursues this path toward a cosmopolitics of mourning through readings of works by Freud Heidegger Sartre Patocka Levinas Derrida and Ric ur and others The movement among these writers Cr pon shows marks a way through and against twentieth century interpretation to argue that no war genocide or neglect of people is possible without suspending how one relates to the death of another human being A history of a critical strain in contemporary thought this book is as Rodolphe Gasch says in the Foreword a profound meditation on what constitutes evil and a rigorous and illuminating reflection on death community and world The translation of this work received financial support from the French Ministry of Foreign Affairs

The Winter Zoo John Beckman, 2002-06-04 Marking the debut of a young writer of enormous talent The Winter Zoo is a sexy hilarious novel of wayward young expatriates and the difference between doing good and feeling good

Intervention of the Other David Ross Fryer, 2020-10-06 The Intervention of the Other deftly brings the thought of Emmanuel Levinas and Jacques Lacan into fruitful dialogue through a comparative analysis of these two seemingly disparate thinkers Emmanuel Levinas Lithuanian born French phenomenologist of the nonphenomenon and Jacques Lacan controversial French psychoanalyst and post structuralist theorist of the Freudian Unconscious lived and wrote in the same city at the same time among the same colleagues often using the same language and the same sources sometimes writing to the same audiences and yet they never wrote to or about one another Following Sartre Levinas thought that Freud had fundamentally misunderstood the nature of consciousness when he posited the Unconscious as a second but hidden consciousness Despite this suspicion of psychoanalysis however Levinas own work celebrated a certain something that could not be contained by thought For his part Lacan was suspicious of philosophical ethics He subscribed to a Freudian critique of ethics as pathogenic Nevertheless he saw his own work as fundamentally about a kind of ethics specifically an ethics concerned with how people live their lives in an already normative society While the two never engaged with each other s thought directly Levinas and Lacan were interested in many of the same questions What is the nature of the self What is it to be a subject Can the ethical be grounded in a post foundationalist world Through close textual analysis David Ross Fryer shows how Levinas and Lacan offer two ways of positing the ethical subject in the post humanist landscape of contemporary thought

Ambrose Bierce and the Dance of Death Sharon Talley, 2009-12-15 Ambrose Bierce and the Dance of Death uses psychoanalytic theory in combination with historical cultural and literary contexts to examine the complex motif of death in a full range of Bierce s writings Scholarly interest in Bierce whose work has long been undervalued has grown significantly in recent years This new book contributes to the ongoing reassessment by providing new contexts for joining the texts in his canon in meaningful ways Previous attempts to consider Bierce from a psychological perspective have been superficial often reductive Freudian readings of individual stories such as An Occurrence at Owl Creek Bridge and The Death of Halpin Frayser This new volume not only updates these interpretations with insights from post Freudian theorists but uses contemporary death theory as a framework to analyze the sources and expressions of Bierce's attitudes about death and dying. This approach makes it possible to discern links among texts that resolve some of the still puzzling ambiguities that have until now precluded a fuller understanding of both the man and his writings. Lively and engaging, Ambrose Bierce and the Dance of Death adds valuable new insights not only to the study of Bierce but to that of nineteenth-century American literature in general.

Poetic Gesture Kristine S. Santilli, 2013-12-16 This study addresses the problem of meaning as it is conveyed by poetic language, attempting to move beyond some of the obstacles and boundaries of contemporary critical approaches. By providing a phenomenological context and through a theoretical contemplation of certain myths as embodiments of the tacit logic of poetry, the book argues that poems convey meaning much the way that spontaneous, unreadable gestures do. Moving between theory and practice and drawing upon the poetry of Wallace Stevens, whose work is embedded with a richness and complexity of gesture, the author shows how the poetic text sustains and embodies an inconvertible, ancient and innately human form of linguistic knowledge.
