The Failure Of Islamic Modernism Syed Ameer Ali's Interpretation Of Islam:

The Failure of Islamic Modernism? Martin Forward, 1999 Although many Muslims have found the modern secular westernized world a hostile environment for their religion a few intellectuals within their religion have attempted to interpret Islam along modernist lines One of the most distinguished Muslim Modernists has been Syed Ameer Ali 1849-1928 the first Indian member of the Privy Council This book examines his modernist interpretation of Islamic history and ethics In particular it examines Ameer Ali's convictions of Islamic beliefs about prophethood and revelation It explores whether such an explanation of how to be a faithful Muslim in the contemporary world is convincing and if so to what group or groups of Muslims Further it asks whether many non-Muslims would be attracted to such an exposition of Islam Islamic Modernism and the Re-Enchantment of the Sacred in the Age of History Monica M. Ringer, 2020-09-04 This book studies the complex relationship of religion to modernity and argues that modernity should be understood as the consequence not the cause of the new intellectual landscape of the 19th century Shows how the adoption of historicism in the 19th century engendered Islamic modernism as a theological reform movement Legal Histories of the British Empire Shaunnagh Dorsett, John McLaren, 2014-04-24 This book is a major contribution to our understanding of the role played by law in the British Empire Using a variety of interdisciplinary approaches the authors provide in-depth analyses which shine new light on the role of law in creating the people and places of the British Empire Ranging from the United States through Calcutta across Australasia to the Gold Coast these essays seek to investigate law's central place in the British Empire and the role of its agents in embedding British rule and culture in colonial territories One of the first collections to provide a sustained engagement with the legal histories of the British Empire in particular beyond the settler colonies this work aims to encourage further scholarship and new approaches to the writing of the histories of that Empire Legal Histories of the British Empire Laws Engagements and Legacies will be of value not only to legal scholars and graduate students but of interest to all of those who want to know more about the laws in and of the British Empire Interpretations of Jihad in South Asia Tariq Rahman, 2020-09-07 In the wake of radical Islamist terrorist attacks described as jihad worldwide and in South Asia it is imperative that there should be a book-length study of this idea in this part of the world The focus of the study is the idea of jihad with its changing interpretations mostly those available in exegetical literature of key figures in South Asia The hermeneutic devices used to understand the meaning of the Quranic verses and the Prophetic traditions relating to jihad will be the focus of this study The main thrust of the study is to understand how interpretations of jihad vary It is seen as being both defensive and aggressive by traditionalists only defensive and mainly about moral improvement by progressive Muslims and being insurrectionist aggressive eternal and justifying violence against civilians by radical Islamists One purpose of the book is to understand how the radical interpretation came to South Asia The book also explains how theories about jihad are influenced by the political and social circumstances of the period and how these insights feed into practice legitimizing

militant movements called jihad for that period

Reform and Modernity in Islam Safdar Ahmed, 2013-05-30 The debate over Islam and modernity tends to be approached from a Eurocentric perspective that presents Western norms as a template for progress against which Islamic societies can be measured This misses the historical development of Muslim reformist thought that actively engages with the world around it and seeks to reconfigure Islam within the diverse conditions of modernity Safdar Ahmed paints a complex and nuanced picture that goes beyond the idea that Muslim reformers have either reproduced or reacted against Western ideas Rather Ahmed argues they have reconstructed and appropriated these ideas and so the thread of Western influence runs through modern Islamic thought on nationalism and sovereignty femininity and gender Ahmed uncovers new historiographical perspectives by critically examining the work of prominent intellectuals such as Muhammad Abduh Qasim Amin and Abdul A la Maududi

Contemporary Islamic Discourse in the Malay-Indonesian World Azhar Ibrahim, 2022-11-24 While many books have probed the role of Islam in political and social change in Southeast Asia over the past three decades few have focused on the power of the religious discourse itself in shaping this transformation Contemporary Islamic Discourse in the Malay Indonesian World captures the interplay between religion and social thought in comparative case studies from Malaysia Indonesia and Singapore Drawing on a critical sociology of knowledge and a profound understanding of historical contexts the central focus is on Muslim intellectuals who have grappled with the impact of modernity in these societies between those seeking to reform Islam's role and those who take a hardline defensive stance The discussion deals successively with the role of religious traditionalism the upsurge of dakwah revivalism and the public sphere attitudes towards democracy and pluralism and finally the ideas advanced by liberal Islam and its opponents Above all Azhar Ibrahim offers the reader a creative way of understanding the modern Islamic discourse and its relationship to the remaking of society at large Azhar Ibrahim's book cuts through the noise of much discourse on Islam and puts perspective to a vast amount of materials effectively constructing their actual social and historical meaning It should be read by all those seeking an in depth understanding of contemporary Southeast Asia even beyond the particular issues of Islam and Muslims Shaharuddin Maaruf Academy of Malay Studies University of Malaya This book is a must read for all those interested in a critical evaluation of the force and implications of religious traditionalism conservatism and revivalism on the development of plural and democratic Muslim societies in Southeast Asia and the challenges they pose to critical voices struggling for the relevance of ethical and humanist traditions of Islam Noor Aisha binte Abdul Rahman Department of Malay Studies National University of Singapore

Slavery and South Asian History Indrani Chatterjee, Richard M. Eaton, 2006-10-12 Will be welcomed by students of comparative slavery It makes us reconsider the significance of slavery in the subcontinent Edward A Alpers UCLA Despite its pervasive presence in the South Asian past slavery is largely overlooked in the region's historiography in part because the forms of bondage in question did not always fit models based on plantation slavery in the Atlantic world This important volume will contribute to a rethinking of slavery in world history and even the category of slavery itself Most slaves in South Asia were not agricultural laborers but military or domestic workers and the latter were overwhelmingly women and children Individuals might become slaves at birth or through capture sale by relatives indenture or as a result of accusations of criminality or inappropriate sexual behavior For centuries trade in slaves linked South Asia with Africa the Middle East and Central Asia The contributors to this collection of original essays describe a wide range of sites and contexts covering more than a thousand years foregrounding the life stories of individual slaves wherever possible Contributors are Daud Ali Indrani Chatterjee Richard M Eaton Michael H Fisher Sumit Guha Peter Jackson Sunil Kumar Avril A Powell Ramya Sreenivasan Sylvia Vatuk and Timothy Walker

Fatwa in Indonesia Pradana Pradana Boy ZTF,2025-10-01 This book looks at fatwa in Indonesia during the period following the fall of President Suharto It is an in depth exploration of three fatwa making agencies Majelis Ulama Indonesia Lajnah Bahth al Masail Nahdlatul Ulama and Majelis Tarjih Muhammadiyah all of which are highly influential in shaping religious thought and the lives of Muslims in Indonesia Rather than look at all the fatwa that have emerged in the period Pradana Boy ZTF focuses on those that have strong repercussions for intra community relations and the development of Indonesian Muslims more generally including fatwa pertaining to sectarianism pluralism secularism and liberalism

Perspectives of Mutual Encounters in South Asian History 1760-1860 Jamal Malik,2000-07-18 Relationships between colonialists and the colonised peoples are often ambivalent but always fascinating This edited volume explores the issues of cultural reciprocity between Europeans and South Asians during the crucial period from 1760 to 1860 In doing so prevailing assumptions about these complex relationships are examined Part I examines a variety of themes in reciprocal encounter such as class structures urban landscape Anglo Muslim cooperation and debates on indigenous values Part II deals with the persons important to the process of reciprocity and discursive interdependence such as orientalist missionaries Indian travellers The texts in the last section focus on the changing and shifting identities thereby revealing the complexity and hybridity of the imperial process The book is based on rich biographical and chronological accounts narrative material and archival data both in occidental and oriental languages
