

The book cover features a large, vibrant rainbow in the background. A black rectangular box with rounded corners is centered over the rainbow. Inside this box, the title 'THE FAIRBANKS ALBUM' is written in large, white, serif capital letters. Below the title, there are two columns of smaller text. On the left, it says 'Drawn from the Family Archives by Douglas Fairbanks, Jr.' and on the right, 'Introduction and Narrative by Richard Schickel'. A black and white photograph of a family (Douglas Fairbanks, Jr., his wife, and two children) is positioned behind the text box, with the family members appearing to be part of the rainbow's arc.
