Geoffrey Jensen, Andrew Wiest

The Gulf War Did Not Happen Politics Culture And Warfare Postvietnam:

The Gulf War Did Not Happen Jeffrey Walsh, 1995 This is an interdisciplinary collection of essays which studies the complex relationship between the historical Gulf war of 1990 1991 and those myths narratives and images commonly drawn on to explain it A linking theme through the volume is the shadow of Vietnam how the Gulf war was perhaps the culminating event in what has come to be known as the Vietnam syndrome

Rethinking Geopolitics Simon Dalby, Gearoid O. u Tuathail, 2002-01-22 Rethinking Geopolitics argues that the concept of geopolitics needs to be conceptualised anew as the twenty first century approaches Challenging conventional geopolitical assumptions contributors explore theories of post modern geopolitics historical formulations of states and cold wars the geopolitics of the Holocaust the gendered dimension of Kurdish insurgency the cold war world political cartoons concerning Bosnia Time magazine representations of the Persian Gulf the Zapatistas and the Chiapas revolt the new cyber politics conflict simulations in the US military the emergence of a new geopolitics of global security Exploring how popular cultural assumptions about geography and politics constitute the discourses of contemporary violence and political economy Rethinking Geopolitics shows that we must rethink the struggle for knowledge space and power

Gender and warfare in the twentieth century Angela K. Smith, 2018-02-28 Gender and warfare in the twentieth century is a collection of exciting accessible and very readable essays that span the twentieth century exploring the ways in which men and women have both represented warfare and represented themselves as participants in warfare A range of contributors from different disciplines explore these representations by examining a wide variety of sources fiction film personal diaries memoirs non fiction letters oral testimonies and more The collection ranges from the trenches of the Western Front through the shell shocked inter war years the civil war in Spain and the disparate battle fronts of World War Two to the complexities of Vietnam and the late century Hollywood workings and re workings of these conflicts The focus on gendered readings provides a thread that binds these essays together to create a comprehensive and interesting picture of the legacy of twentieth century warfare at the beginning of the new millennium

Propaganda, the Press and Conflict David R. Willcox, 2005-09-19 An incisive analysis of the use of the press for propaganda purposes during conflicts using the first Gulf War and the intervention in Kosovo as case studies As the contemporary analysis of propaganda during conflict has tended to focus considerably upon visual and instant media coverage this book redresses the imbalance and contributes to the growing discourse on the role of the press in modern warfare Through an innovative comparative analysis of press treatment of the two conflicts it reveals the existence of five consistent propaganda themes portrayal of the leader figure portrayal of the enemy military threat threat to international stability and technological warfare As these themes construct a fluid model for the analysis and understanding of propaganda content in the press during conflicts involving British forces they also provide the background against which the author can discuss general issues regarding propaganda Amongst the issues which have become increasingly relevant to both recent academic debate and popular culture the author tackles the role of the journalist in war coverage the place of the press in a news market dominated by instant visual media and the effectiveness of propaganda in specific cultural and political context This book will appeal to advanced students and researchers in war studies media studies propaganda and psychology Media, War and Postmodernity Philip Hammond, 2007-10-10 Discussing theorists including Baudrillard and Virilio and covering conflicts including the two Gulf Wars Somalia Bosnia Haiti Rwanda Kosovo Afghanistan and the War on Terror this book investigates the new character of modern warfare and why media presentation of conflict is so central to both Western military operations and terrorists Feminist Cultural Studies of Science and Technology Maureen McNeil, 2008-01-15 Feminist Cultural Studies of Science and Technology challenges the assumption that science is simply what scientists do say or write it shows the multiple and dispersed makings of science and technology in everyday life and popular culture This first major guide and review of the new field of feminist cultural studies of science and technology provides readers with an accessible introduction to its theories and methods Documenting and analyzing the recent explosion of research which has appeared under the rubric of cultural studies of science and technology it examines the distinctive features of the cultural turn in science studies and traces the contribution feminist scholarship has made to this development Interrogating the theoretical and methodological features it evaluates the significance of this distinctive body of research in the context of concern about public attitudes to science and contentious debates about public understanding of and engagement with science The Media at War Susan Carruthers, 2011-02-15 News media movies blogs and video games issue constant invitations to picture war experience the thrill of combat and revisit battles past War it is often said sells But what does it take to sell a war and to what extent can news media be viewed as disinterested reporters of truth Lively and highly readable this book explores how wars have been reported interpreted and perpetuated from the dawn of the media age to the present digital era Spanning a broad geographical and historical canvas Susan L Carruthers provides a compelling analysis of the forces that shape the production of news and images of war from state censorship to more subtle forms of military manipulation and popular pressure This fully revised second edition has been updated to cover modern day conflict in the post 9 11 epoch including the wars in Iraq and Afghanistan Rich in historical detail The Media at War also provides sharp insights into contemporary experience prompting critical reflection on western society's paradoxical attitudes towards war Intelligence and International Security Len Scott, R. Gerald Hughes, Martin Alexander, 2013-10-31 The events of 9 11 and subsequent acts of jihadist terrorism together with the failures of intelligence agencies over Iraq's Weapons of Mass Destruction have arguably heralded a new age of intelligence For some this takes the form of a crisis of legitimacy For others the threat of cataclysmic terrorism involving chemical biological radiological or nuclear attack gives added poignancy to the academic contention that intelligence failure is inevitable Many of the challenges facing intelligence appear to be both new and deeply worrying In response intelligence has clearly taken on new forms and new agendas How these various developments are viewed depends upon the historical normative and political frameworks in which they are analysed This book addresses fundamental questions arising in this new age The central aim of the collection is to identify key issues and questions and subject them to interrogation from different methodological perspectives using internationally acclaimed experts in the field A key focus in the collection is on British and North American perspectives Recent trends and debates about the organisation and conduct of intelligence provide key themes for exploration Underpinning several contributions is the recognition that intelligence faces a conflict of ideas as much as practices and threats This book was published as a special issue of Intelligence and National Security

War in the Age of Technology Geoffrey Jensen, Andrew Wiest, 2001-04 Considering the relationships between war technology and modern society this book fuses military and social history concerning the use of organized violence between states during the period since 1789 Thirteen essays look at the military use of technology on and off the battlefield the introduction of total war during the two world wars and the possibility of limited war in the nuclear age The experiences of the British military are emphasized Contributors include historians archivists psychologists and military scholars c Book News Inc
