Veenhoven, 2024-09-09 Capitalism and Class Struggle in the USSR Neil C. Fernandez, 2018-12-14 First published in 1997 this was the first Autonomist Marxist book on the USSR The various theories of Soviet capitalism are considered more comprehensively than in any previous work and are shown to be inadequate insofar as they fail to demonstrate satisfactorily the predominance of the category of capital A powerful new theory is developed which does precisely this introducing the concepts of bureaucratic forms of both exchange value and money This constitutes an important contribution to the overall theoretical critique of capital Attention is then turned to the class struggle For the first time the various Marxist theories of the USSR are systematically considered in relation to what they say about the working class and its struggle Education, Social Structure and Development Bill Williamson, 1979-05-31 Housing and Planning References, 1971 Public Higher Education in California Neil J. Smelser, Gabriel Abraham Almond, 1974 Change and Mobility in Contemporary India Sobin George, Manohar Yadav, Anand Inbanathan, 2019-09-25 This book studies caste and community dynamics in India and offers a critical view of social mobility from below Building on the theories of the eminent sociologist M N Srinivas the essays in this volume reformulate the debate on caste as they document the changing inter caste dynamics and caste based violence in contemporary India The volume showcases the new language of change in caste relations articulated mostly from the perspective of the marginalised as experiences differences contestations assertions and as citizenship rights It focusses on the clash between traditional structures of inequality and the ideals of equality and justice in a liberal democratic India It also highlights the persistence of caste and endogamy and the interlocking nature of caste gender and disability struggles of ethnic groups and informal workers in the market economy discrimination in the labour market and the dissolution of dissent in the public sphere With contributions from leading scholars of social change and development in India and abroad this volume will be useful for scholars and researchers of sociology social anthropology minority and subaltern studies and development studies Diversities in Education David Mitchell, 2016-10-04 Diversities in Education is a challenging text that will help educators teacher educators and trainee teachers to be more effective in teaching a range of diverse learners It covers five major categories of difference sex and gender social class and socio economic status race ethnicity and culture beliefs and religion and different abilities and asks the urgent questions all policy makers educators and students should consider Why should we value diversity and human rights How can inclusive education accommodate diversity How do society's aspirations for cohesion and harmony impact on people who are different What meanings are given to differences culturally and historically Should educators seek to accentuate eliminate reduce or ignore differences By drawing attention to the latest research into the most effective educational policies and practices this insightful book suggests strategies for meeting the challenges being posed in an era of superdiversity It s a crucial read for any training or practising educator who wants to address the issue of diversity learn effective ways to reach all learners and create more inclusive and harmonious societies American Book Publishing Record ,1977-03-31 Here s quick access to more than 490 000 titles published from 1970 to 1984 arranged in Dewey sequence with sections for Adult and Juvenile Fiction Author and Title indexes are included and a Subject Guide correlates primary subjects with Dewey and LC classification numbers These cumulative records are available in three separate sets

CCCS Selected Working Papers Ann Gray,Jan Campbell,Mark Erickson,Stuart Hanson,Helen Wood,2007-11-07 This collection of classic essays focuses on the theoretical frameworks that informed the work of the Centre for Contemporary Cultural Studies at the University of Birmingham the methodologies and working practices that the Centre developed for conducting academic research and examples of the studies carried out under the auspices of the Centre This volume is split into seven thematic sections that are introduced by key academics working in the field of cultural studies and includes a preface by eminent scholar Stuart Hall The thematic sections are Literature and Society Popular Culture and Youth Subculture Media Women s Studies and Feminism Race History Education and Work Explaining Inequalities in School Achievement Roy Nash,2016-04-15 Inequalities in educational opportunity have been a persistent feature of all school systems for generations with conventional explanations of differences in educational attainment tending to be reduced to either quantitative or non quantitative list theories In this groundbreaking book Roy Nash argues that a realist framework for the sociological explanation of educational group differences can and must be constructed A move to such an explanatory framework will allow us to take into account the social influences of early childhood development the later emergence of social identities and the nature of the social class impact of educational and career decision making By building on the critical analyses of the theories of Bourdieu Boudon and Bernstein this book makes a vital contribution to the current policy and theoretical debate about the causes of educational inequality Sociological Theory John Scott,2023-01-13 This thoroughly revised and updated third edition provides an expanded analysis of the nature and future of sociological theory It offers new sections on feminist post colonial and critical race theories as well as a discussion of theories of system structure and complexity The SAGE Handbook of Counselling and Psychotherapy Colin Feltham,Terry Hanley,Laura Anne Winter,2017-09-20 At over 700 pages and with more than 100 contributions this Fourth Edition brings together the essentials of counselling and psychotherapy theory research skills and practice Including new content on assessment theory applications and settings and with new chapter overviews and summaries this continues to be the most comprehensive and accessible guide to the field for trainees or experienced practitioners Subject Catalog Library of Congress,1976

Revival: Society in the Making: Hungarian Social and Societal Policy, 1945-75 \(1979\) Zsuzsa Ferge,2018-07-06 This title was first published in 1979 This important book is the product of a remarkable experience A sociologist domiciled in Hungary

the author has intermittently taught and studied in France Britain and the United States Few social scientists of the post Second World War generation have had this range of experience And as we know from the history of theoretical physics psychoanalysis economic and other fields Hungary is the incubator of great talents A Society in the Making can be read on three levels as a study of Hungarian social structure as a case study in comparative social policy or as a contribution to the theory of social policy As a study of Hungary the author s book is one of the small but growing number of analyses of Eastern Europe and the Soviet Union which avoid denunciamientos and apologetics It is a sympathetically critical account as she says In social science there is no neutral act from which much can be learned Recording for the Blind & Dyslexic, ... Catalog of Books ,1996 Being Brahmin, Being Modern Ramesh Bairy,2013-01-11 There is clearly an academic and political obsession with the idea of the Brahmin There is also simultaneously a near complete absence of engagement with the Brahmin as an embodied person or community This book addresses this intriguing paradox by making available a sociological description of the Brahmins in today s Karnataka It pursues three distinct yet enmeshed registers of inquiry the persona of the Brahmin embodied in the agency of the individual Brahmin the organised complexes of action such as the caste association and the public culture of print and finally taking off from a longer yet modern and contemporary history of non Brahminical othering of the Brahmin It argues that we tend to understand the contemporaneity of caste almost exclusively within the twin registers of legitimation contestation and dominance resistance While these facets continue to be salient there is also a need to push out into hitherto neglected dimensions of caste The book focuses attention on the many lives of modern caste its secularisation the subject positions that it offers the equivocations by which persons and communities become subjects of caste their differential investments in the caste self Social Mobility in Comparative Perspective Włodzimierz Wesołowski,Kazimierz M. Słomczyński,Bogdan W. Mach,1978
