

The background of the cover is a detailed, sepia-toned illustration depicting various social insects and their colonies. In the upper left, a large, complex nest structure is shown with numerous small insects, likely ants or termites, moving about. To the right, a large, multi-chambered beehive is visible, with bees flying around it. In the lower left, a large, textured mound, possibly a termite nest or a large ant colony, is shown. The entire scene is set against a light, textured background that suggests a natural, outdoor environment. The title 'SOCIAL INSECTS' is prominently displayed in the center, with 'VOLUME I' below it. The editor's name, 'Henry R. Hermann', is positioned in the lower right, and the publisher's information is at the bottom left.
