Feelings of Structure Karen Engle, Yoke-Sum Wong, 2018-11-30 Sweatsuits and the apocalypse the demands of a sofa a life recalled through window frames whale watching through cancer the serendipity of geographical names in Feelings of Structure these are just some of the spaces and places memories and experiences addressed by the authors in writings that are multilevel explorations of the tangled up nature of feeling and structure Inspired by Raymond Williams's classic essay Structures of Feeling and influenced by the current discussion of affect studies this collection inverts Williams's influential concept to explore the ephemerality of feeling as working in concert with the grounding forces of materiality and history Feelings of Structure is a collection of twelve original texts that explores the weight of diverse encounters with a variety of configurations be they institutional spatial historical or fantastical Featuring writers from a range of disciplines this book aims for textual evocation in subject matter and approach with essays that encompass multiple methodologies writing styles and tones Experimental in nature Feelings of Structure balances the need for concrete and specific observation with the ephemerality of experience Shamanic Worlds Marjorie Mandelstam Balzer,2016-09-16 The ancient heartland of shamanism is no longer forbidden territory to travelers or to the spirits But the spirits never left the vastnesses of Siberia and Central Asia as these writings reveal Russian and native experts and an American cultural anthropologist who has done fieldwork in the region introduce us to shamans as the poets therapists healers and even leaders of their communities Among the special features of this collection are remarkable transcriptions of shamanic exhortations and a pathbreaking study of shamanic tales and rituals Sovereignty and Authenticity Prasenjit Duara,2004-09-01 In this powerful and provocative book Prasenjit Duara uses the case of Manchukuo the Japanese puppet state in northeast China from 1932 1945 to explore how such antinomies as imperialism and nationalism modernity and tradition and governmentality and exploitation interacted in the post World War I period His study of Manchukuo which had a population of 40 million and was three times the area of Japan catalyzes a broader understanding of new global trends that characterized much of the twentieth century Asking why Manchukuo so desperately sought to appear sovereign Duara examines the cultural and political resources it mobilized to make claims of sovereignty He argues that Manchukuo as a transparently constructed nation state offers a unique historical laboratory for examining the utilization and transformation of circulating global forces mediated by the East Asian modern Sovereignty and AUthenticity not only shows how Manchukuo drew technologies of modern nationbuilding from China and Japan but it provides a window into how some of these techniques and processes were obscured or naturalized in the more successful East Asian nation states With its sweepingly original theoretical and comparative perspectives on nationalism and imperialism this book will be essential reading for all those interested in contemporary history Agricultural Economics Bibliography United States. Bureau of Agricultural Economics. Library,1940
