Social Protection For Equity And Growth:

Social Protection as Development Policy Sarah Cook, Naila Kabeer, 2016-01-21 The Asian crisis of the late 1990s severely affected some of the most successful economies in the region placing the issue of social protection high on the regional and international agenda Subsequently growth rates revived but the fruits of growth have not been evenly distributed and inequality has risen Behind this trend lie deeply entrenched forms of poverty and social exclusion as well as new forms of vulnerability resulting from the liberalisation of markets and growing exposure to the global economy This volume deals with issues of poverty vulnerability and social exclusion in the Asian context The articles deal with different groups of vulnerable people exploring some of the characteristics of vulnerability in different contexts and reflecting on appropriate policy responses Collectively they emphasise a broad based systemic approach to the problems of vulnerability and insecurity where social protection needs to be rescued from its dominant current conceptualisation as a response to risk and crisis and instead be integrated into the mainstream of development policy This book will interest scholars of economics politics development studies development economics sociology social policy and South Asian studies OECD Reviews of Labour

Market and Social Policies: Chile 2009 OECD, 2009-04-06 This report analyses in detail the implications of recent developments in Chile's labour market and social policy and considers the available policy options from the perspective of OECD countries experience Social Protection for Equity and Growth Inter-American Development Bank, 2000 These groups often live near the subsistence level and lack the economic or political power to push for policies that can respond to their needs during times of crisis BOOK JACKET Social Protection and Social Development Julie L. Drolet, 2013-11-19 The Social Protection Floor Initiative promotes universal access to essential social transfers and services Presently 80% of the global population does not enjoy a set of social guarantees that allows them to deal with life's risks such as unemployment ill health and natural disasters This book explores the importance and necessity of social protection including key concepts universal principles and human rights the need for context specific policies the role of adaptive climate change and country examples Social protection refers to a set of essential transfers services and facilities that all citizens everywhere should enjoy to ensure the realization of the rights embodied in human rights treaties The Social Protection Floor aims to facilitate and accelerate the introduction or strengthening of sustainable context specific social protection systems Experiences from countries around the world that have implemented components of the Social Protection Floor provide evidence of its feasibility affordability and impact The promise and success of social protection is important for transformative change social inclusion and alliance building and raises critical questions about current neoliberal austerity measures This book calls for a comprehensive multi dimensional integrated and innovative policy mix that recognizes the interdependency between demographic shifts employment labour migration social protection economic development and the environment

Handbook on Social Protection and Social Development in the Global South Leila Patel, Sophie Plagerson, Isaac

Chinyoka,2023-09-06 This cutting edge Handbook argues for social protection to be situated in a wider system of social welfare and development programmes for low and middle income countries Focusing on the role of citizens and communities in enhancing human development it explores how welfare systems are unfolding in diverse contexts across the global South

Social Development and Social Work Perspectives on Social Protection Julie L. Drolet,2016-04-28 Social protection is now considered a development milestone and an important tool in combating poverty Interventions can include for example health insurance public works programs guaranteed employment schemes or cash transfers targeting vulnerable populations groups This innovative volume is designed to develop understanding about the role and contribution of social protection globally and to share innovative practice and policies from around the world It explores how to cover an entire population effectively especially those who are at risk or who are already in a situation of deprivation and in a sustainable manner Divided into two parts the book begins by exploring the theoretical underpinnings of social protection discussing the social work and social development perspectives and concepts that currently shape it The second part is comprised of case studies from countries implementing successful social protection initiatives including Brazil India South Africa Ghana Nigeria and Indonesia and reveals how the impact of a successful social protection intervention on poverty vulnerability and inequality can be dramatic This volume is an important reference for advanced students and researchers from a range of disciplines including social policy social work development studies geography planning economics sociology population health and political science Handbook on Social Protection Systems Schüring, Esther,Loewe, Markus,2021-08-27 This exciting and innovative Handbook provides readers with a comprehensive and globally relevant overview of the instruments actors and design features of social protection systems as well as their application and impacts in practice It is the first book that centres around system building globally a theme that has gained political importance yet has received relatively little attention in academia Poverty Reduction and Pro-Poor Growth The Role of Empowerment OECD,2012-04-27

Empowerment of those living in poverty is both a critical driver and an important measure of poverty reduction This report aims to build donor understanding of empowerment and how best to support it Development Centre Studies Towards Greener and More Inclusive Societies in Southeast Asia OECD,2024-03-11 Understanding the effects of both climate change and green growth policies on jobs and people is thus essential for making the transition in Southeast Asia an inclusive one The study explores these issues with emphasis on the potential effects on labour of an energy transition in Indonesia and of a transition in the region s agricultural sector illustrated by a simulated conversion from conventional to organic rice farming

Development Co-operation Report 2013 Ending Poverty OECD,2013-12-05 The Development Co operation Report is the key annual reference document for statistics and analysis on trends in international aid Enhancing Children's Rights A. Smith,2015-03-18 This volume explores how children s rights has influenced research with children and how research can in turn shape policies and practices to enhance children s rights The book examines the impact children s rights and

Childhood Studies has had on how children are constructed and regulated internationally      Gender and Social Protection in the Developing World Rebecca Holmes, Nicola Jones, 2013-03-14 Millions of pounds of international development funds are invested annually in social protection programmes to tackle poverty Poverty is perpetuated by risk and vulnerability much of which is gendered Despite this little attention has been paid to gender sensitive policy and programme design and implementation Gender and Social Protection in the Developing World introduces a much needed gender lens to these debates Drawing on empirical evidence from poor households and communities in Africa Asia and Latin America the book provides rich insight into the effects of a range of social protection instruments It concludes that with relatively simple changes to design and with investment in implementation capacity social protection can contribute to transforming gender relations at the individual intrahousehold and community levels With a foreword by Stephen Devereux      Leading Issues

in Competition, Regulation, and Development Paul Cook, 2004-01-01 The promotion of liberalized and deregulated markets by bilateral and multilateral aid donors and by global institutions such as the WTO has led to significant attention being paid to competition and regulatory reforms in developing economies The process of reform involves the transfer and diffusion of market models derived from practice and theory in developed countries However in developing countries regulation needs to do more than simply promote competitiveness and consumer interests it also needs to ensure that the market nurtures development By rigorously examining the numerous impacts of regulation this book will help to fill a significant gap in the literature on economic and social development The book now available in paperback draws together contributions from leading experts across a range of disciplines including economics law politics and governance public management and business management The authors begin with an extensive overview of the issues of regulation and competition in developing countries and carefully illustrate the important themes and concepts involved Using a variety of country and sector case studies they move on to focus on the problems of applicability and adaptation that are experienced in the process of transferring best practice policy models from developed to developing countries The book presents a clear agenda for further empirical research and is notable for its rigorous exploration of the links between theory and practice Although there is substantial interest in competition and regulation as yet there has been relatively little investigation of these issues in developing economies This book redresses the balance and will be a valuable resource for researchers academics teachers and students interested in development economics and development studies It will also be of great relevance for practitioners and policymakers working in the fields of competition policy and regulatory reform      The Social Protection Indicator for the Pacific Asian Development Bank, 2022-12-01 This report presents the analysis of 2018 data on social protection measures in Asian Development Bank's 14 Pacific developing member countries It uses the Asian Development Bank's Social Protection Indicator to assess the level of resources invested in social protection extent of coverage and benefit levels of social protection programs Further data disaggregation provides the distribution of social protection expenditures in terms of poverty gender and for people with disabilities The report identifies measures adopted in response to the coronavirus disease pandemic and outlines the future directions for social protection in the Pacific region

Race to the Next Income Frontier Mr.Ali M. Mansoor,Salifou Issoufou,Mr.Daouda Sembene,2018-04-04 Economic transformation and diversification require solutions that take account of the political economy of reform This book explores the process of economic transformation using Senegal as an example Sound macroeconomic and fiscal policies are prerequisites for achieving this kind of transformation but these policies need to include the appropriate industrial policies and good economic governance which provide incentives to help small and medium sized enterprises emerge from the informal sector and for foreign direct investment to use the country as a platform for globally competitive production In many low income countries extensive rent seeking and patronage have generated stability at the expense of inclusive growth and held back development Although policymakers know what is needed to address these problems and achieve economic transformation and diversification how to do it remains a challenge This book shows how the political economy of reform may be navigated to achieve transformation For example the use of special economic zones may solve the problem if good global governance is emphasized along with linking the zones to the global economy

Enhancing Social Protection in Asia and the Pacific Sri Wening Handayani,2011-02-01 On 21 22 April 2010 the Asian Development Bank ADB organized a social protection conference in Manila Interest in social protection has been growing since the global financial crisis heightened awareness of the many millions of people in Asia and the Pacific who live in poverty or vulnerable situations Thus policy makers are now keen to develop social protection systems that can assist people to both leave and stay out of poverty The conference brought together people from ADB its developing member countries partner agencies research institutes and civil society organizations to exchange valuable experience and information and discuss ideas on how to develop social protection and expand it for the well being of people in Asia and the Pacific This book features selected papers from the conference that respond to the need for integrated and inclusive social protection to improve the quality of peoples lives and livelihoods Specific areas emphasized are health insurance pensions the informal sector measures targeting children and measuring and monitoring social protection

Post-Pandemic Economic and Social Development Muzalwana Abdul Talib,Ahmad Farid Osman,Elya Nabila Abdul Bahri,2024-11-11 This book explores Malaysia s experience during the COVID 19 pandemic analyzing the profound economic and societal challenges faced from 2020 to 2022 The coverage of Malaysia s post pandemic recovery provides valuable insights into ongoing global issues Contributors to this book address a wide range of topics including unemployment monetary and trade policies tourism human capital development and women s labor participation They also examine the rise of the gig economy poverty alleviation efforts and social safety nets By presenting model applications and empirical research the book offers data driven policy advice to handle challenges that arise from pandemics such as rising inflation supply chain disruptions disparities and sustainability issues This book will interest academics and researchers in the field of econometrics Asian economics and Malaysian studies It will also act as a useful guide for NGOs practitioners public administrators and economic policymakers involved in post COVID 19 economic revival and policy development     The Three Regularities in Development Moazam Mahmood,2018-06-06 The financial crisis in advanced economies and its impact on developing countries has put the longer term agenda of development structural transformation of countries of their growth jobs poverty and distribution on the analytic and policy backburner Day to day management of macro fundamentals in the global economy and the labour market have consumed decision makers with faltering GDP growth soaring unemployment and a resurgent threat of deflation Without understanding and addressing the structural constraints and imbalances underpinning such global problems the world economy is doomed to experience an increasing number of crises and emerging dualisms between countries The aim of this book is to bring back a balance to the development debate by re focusing on the structural development challenges faced by developing countries The book develops a coherent analytical framework supported by a large body of new empirical evidence linking three core dimensions the structure of growth employment and their macro drivers Then for each of these dimensions and relationships a variety of effective policies are also identified and elucidated with the added granularity of country cases     Maintaining Momentum OECD Perspectives on Policy Challenges in Chile OECD,2011-04-04 To inform the current policy debate in Chile and present an economic assessment with concrete recommendations and policy options this report provides a detailed analysis of the overall Chilean economic situation     The Politics of Means and Ends Dr Holger Bähr,2013-03-28 Policy instruments are techniques used to implement policy goals Subject to political conflict they address the relationship between those who govern and those who are governed Why do political actors choose certain policy instruments to implement policy goals Systematically comparing policy instruments employed in the European Union s environmental and social policy Holger Bähr develops a general theoretical framework to illustrate how policy makers prefer different types of policy instruments depending on the respective effect they wish to have on member state governments citizens consumers and producers He argues that institutions the politicisation of policy problems and external events constrain political actors and provide them with the opportunity to transfer their preferred policy instruments into policy outputs at the end of decision making
