Sustainable Fashion and Textiles in Latin America Miguel Ángel Gardetti,Rosa Patricia Larios-Francia,2021-07-29 This book highlights the sustainable aspects of fashion and textiles in Latin America and discusses how the manufacturing and consumption of textile products and fashion are significant sources of environmental damage It addresses important issues of water and energy consumption in the textile and fashion industry and using case studies presents how social responsibilities in consumer behavior can help in minimizing these environmental issues for a better future Artisans and Cooperatives

Kimberly M. Grimes, B. Lynne Milgram, 2022-07-12 With new markets opening up for goods produced by artisans from all parts of the world craft commercialization and craft industries have become key components of local economies Now with the emergence of the Fair Trade movement and public opposition to sweatshop labor many people are demanding that artisans in third world countries not be exploited for their labor Bringing together case studies from the Americas and Asia this timely collection of articles addresses the interplay among subsistence activities craft production and the global market It contributes to current debates on economic inequality by offering practical examples of the political economic and cultural issues surrounding artisan production as an expressive vehicle of ethnic and gender identity Striking a balance between economic and ethnographic analyses the contributors observe what has worked and what hasn't in a range of craft cooperatives and show how some artisans have expanded their entrepreneurial role by marketing crafts in addition to producing them Among the topics discussed are the accommodation of craft traditions in the global market fair trade issues and the emerging role of the anthropologist as a proactive agent for artisan groups As the gap between rich and poor widens the fate of subsistence economies seems more and more uncertain The artisans in this book show that people can and do employ innovative opportunities to develop their talents and in the process strengthen their ethnic identities Contents Introduction Facing the Challenges of Artisan Production in the Global Market Kimberly M Grimes and B Lynne Milgram Democratizing International Production and Trade North American Alternative Trading Organizations Kimberly M Grimes Building on Local Strengths Nepalese Fair Trade Textiles Rachel MacHenry That They Be in the Middle Lord Women Weaving and Cultural Survival in Highland Chiapas Mexico Christine E Eber The International Craft Market A Double Edged Sword for Guatemalan Maya Women Martha Lynd Of Women Hope and Angels Fair Trade and Artisan Production in a Squatter Settlement in Guatemala City Brenda Rosenbaum Reorganizing Textile Production for the Global Market Women's Craft Cooperatives in Ifugao Upland Philippines B Lynne Milgram Textile Production in Rural Oaxaca Mexico and the Complexities of the Global Market for Handmade Crafts Jeffrey H Cohen Part Time for Pin Money The Legacy of Navajo Women's Craft Production Kathy M Closkey The Hard Sell Anthropologists as Brokers of Crafts in the Global Marketplace Andrew Causey Postscript To Market To Market June Nash Alternative Economies and Spaces Hans-Martin

Zademach, Sebastian Hillebrand, 2014-04-15 The volume entails a collection of contributions by leading scholars Raymond Bryant Michael K Goodman Benjamin Huybrechts Andrew E G Jonas Roger Lee Peter North and Katinka Weber concerned with alternative modes of economic and social exchange The cases addressed in these contributions including credit unions alternative currencies sustainable consumption and social enterprises deliver valuable insights into how such alternatives are performed at various scales and spaces in relation to and beyond the economic mainstream In sum the collection provides vital grounds for both a transition of the economic system towards a more sustainable one and a reconceptualisation of the economic itself in our scholarly thinking and everyday lives Global Backlash Robin Broad,2002 This work aims to move beyond the monolithic portrayal of the globalization protests that have escalated since Seattle and are not likely to abate soon With analysis and primary documents from a variety of popular and uncommon sources Robin Broad explores proposals and initiatives coming from the backlash to answer the question But what do they want A range of propositions and a debate among segments of the backlash emerge A History of Fair Trade in Contemporary Britain Matthew Anderson,2015-09-06 This book offers an original contribution to the empirical knowledge of the development of Fair Trade that goes beyond the anecdotal accounts to challenge and analyse the trading practices that shaped the Fair Trade model Fair Trade represented a new approach to global trade corporate social responsibility and consumer politics The SAGE Handbook of Tourism Studies Tazim Jamal,Mike Robinson,2009-06-18 The strongest overview I have encountered of the scope and the current state of research across all the fields involved in advancing our understanding of tourism For its range of topics depth of analyses and distinction of its contributors nothing is comparable Professor Dean MacCannell University of California Davis The breadth of vision and sweep of accounts is remarkable and range of topics laudable a rare combination of the authoritative the challenging and stimulating Professor Mike Crang Durham University Tourism studies developed as a sub branch of older disciplines in the social sciences such as anthropology sociology and economics and newer applied fields of study in hospitality management civil rights and transport studies This Handbook is a sign of the maturity of the field It provides an essential resource for teachers and students to determine the roots key issues and agenda of tourism studies exploring The evolution and position of tourism studies The relationship of tourism to culture The ecology and economics of tourism Special events and destination management Methodologies of study Tourism and transport Tourism and heritage Tourism and postcolonialism Global tourist business operations Ranging from local to global issues and from questions of management to the ethical dilemmas of tourism this is a comprehensive critically informed constructively organized overview of the field It draws together an inter disciplinary group of contributors who are among the most celebrated names in the field and will be quickly recognized as a landmark in the new and expanding field of tourism studies The Fullness of Time in a Flat World Scott Waalkes,2010-01-01 Best selling author Thomas Friedman says that globalization has made the world flat and that we cannot stop the process But while it is right to say that globalization tends to flatten our world it is wrong to say that there are no alternatives to current patterns of economic ecological political and cultural integration This book argues that the Christian liturgical calendar provides a constructive alternative to the globalization of economics ecologies politics and cultures It does so by incorporating the church into the fullness of time in the gospel narrative thereby helping us escape from the dead end of Friedman s flat world so that we can improvise healthier ways of being globally integrated Gender at Work in Economic Life Gracia Clark,2003 This new volume from SEA illuminates the importance of gender as a frame of reference in the study of economic life The contributors are economic anthropologists who consider the role of gender and work in a cross cultural context examining issues of historical change the construction of globalization household authority and entitlement and entrepreneurship and autonomy The book will be a valuable resource for researchers in anthropology and in the related fields of economics sociology of work gender studies women s studies and economic development Published in cooperation with the Society for Economic Anthropology Visit their web page Fair Trade Laura T. Raynolds, Douglas Murray, John Wilkinson, 2007-06-11 This book explores the challenges and potential of Fair Trade one of the world s most dynamic efforts to enhance global social justice and environmental sustainability through market based social change Fair Trade links food consumers and agricultural producers across the Global North South divide and lies at the heart of key efforts to reshape the global economy This book reveals the challenges the movement faces in its effort to transform globalization emphasizing the inherent tensions in working both in and against the market It explores Fair Trade s recent rapid growth into new production regions market arenas and commodity areas through case studies of Europe North America Africa and Latin America undertaken by prominent scholars in each region The authors draw on and advance global commodity and value chain analysis convention and social movement approaches through these case studies and a series of synthetic analytical chapters Pressures for more radical and more moderate approaches intertwine with the movement s historical vision reshaping Fair Trade s priorities and efforts in the Global North and South Fair Trade will be of strong interest to students and scholars of politics globalization sociology geography economics and business Ethics in Consumer Choice Nina Langen, 2012-12-20 This dissertation elaborates differences and similarities of forms of ethical behaviour in general and analyses whether German consumers differentiate between different types of ethical behaviour in particular The thesis is characterised by its intensive combination of theoretical and empirical research It furthermore contributes to the literature as the method triangulation applied in the different surveys reveals previously unknown relationships between different kinds of ethical behaviour such as ethical consumption and charitable giving as well as between different forms of ethical products Choice experiment latent class analysis information display matrix and item based attitude assessment allowed the comparison of stated and revealed preferences as well as an analysis of the relevance of ethical product features within the context of different product and process attributes The dissertation provides insights into a research field which is becoming more and more relevant and improves the understanding of consumers assessment and the interdependencies of the possibilities of ethical behaviour This allows the development of recommendations for consumer policy makers business and NGOs concerned with the ethics of consumer choice as well as future research on ethical behaviour in general and ethical consumption in particular Fair Trade, Corporate Accountability and Beyond Shelley Marshall, 2016-04-15 As trade and production have increasingly crossed international boundaries private bodies and governments alike have sought new ways to regulate labour standards and advance goals of fairness and social justice Governments are harnessing social and market forces to advance corporate accountability while private bodies are employing techniques drawn from command and control regulation to shape the behaviour of business This collection brings together the research and reflections of a diverse international mix of academics activists and practitioners in the fields of fair trade and corporate accountability representing perspectives from both the industrialized and developing worlds Contributors provide detailed case studies of a range of social justice governance initiatives documenting the evolution of established strategies of advocacy and social mobilization and evaluating the strengths and limitations of voluntary initiatives compared with legally enforceable instruments

Americo Beviglia Zampetti's Fairness in the World Economy provides an important lens into understanding fairness debates in contemporary trade discourse an important contribution to the trade literature the historical excavation that Fairness in the World Economy provides is of great value Students and scholars alike will find Zampetti's clear and concise history of US trade policy from the founding to the present to be extremely useful More importantly at a time when there is widespread argument that too few share in globalization's benefits and too many have no voice in its design and no influence on its course Fairness in the World Economy invites its readers to consider the adequacy of the level playing field notion of fairness and to grapple with the politically contentious question of how trade can help create a more just international economic order Jeffrey L Dunoff The American Journal of International Law This is an unusually timely and insightful work addressing the crucial issue of the justice of globalization The author avoids the polemics and abstractions with which this question is usually treated his economic literacy as well as hands on policy experience in international and transnational institutions make this a uniquely practical balanced and nuanced account bringing much clarity to a heated debate which usually divides the different disciplines and specialities rather than inciting their engagement Robert L Howse University of Michigan Ann Arbor US This volume describes the birth with all the birth defects of the notion of fairness in the US The extent of the author's research is quite breathtaking not only does he delve into an infinite series of official and semi official documents but he also looks at case law opinions expressed in the literature etc to come up with an expression of US fairness that does not suffer from selection bias But this is only half what the author has accomplished through his work He goes on to examine how US fairness has been exported to international institutions such as the GATT WTO regime and demonstrates how once discussed and shaped among all trading partners it has come back to the US in a different form The book thus provides both the inside out and the outside in perspective It will prove invaluable for the political scientist the economic historian and the lawyer alike Petros C Mavroidis Edwin B Parker Professor of Law Columbia Law School US and University of Neuchatel Switzerland CEPR This book represents a significant scholarly contribution to the field of international political economy with particular respect to the evolution of the multilateral trading system The author engages effectively with the current debate concerning the conflict between the legalistic foundations of the multilateral trading system underpinned by the equality of nation states and the demands for fair trade on the basis of inter personal equity It is a coherent and well researched book on a critically important issue that has not received the significant attention that it deserves within the field of international trade policy Robert Read Lancaster University Management School UK In an international context fairness is particularly important since only a system which is perceived by its participants as fair can command acceptance and compliance The main focus of this study is to investigate the development of the notion of fairness in US trade policy and law as well as the impact this notion has on international trade discussions and rule making and especially on the formation of the multilateral trade regime The contention of the author Americo Beviglia Zampetti is that fairness concerns which have been present in the US trade policy debates and treaty practice since the Republic s inception have contributed to shaping these debates and practice over the years both at home and abroad These concerns were
