Comparative Public Policy Anneliese Dodds,2018-03-29 The second edition of this popular textbook combines coverage of public policies in different countries with the conceptual and methodological frameworks for analysing them This new edition pays particular attention to the international contexts of ideas interests and institutions in which decision makers operate In addition it considers the bilateral multilateral and transnational aspects of policy making in today s interconnected world This is a core text for introductory modules on undergraduate and postgraduate public policy public management and public administration programmes In addition it will be useful for those courses that take a comparative approach to specific policy areas such as welfare health and education With a focus on enabling students to draw their own comparisons it is the ideal choice for lecturers across the world New to this Edition New and improved chapter structure places conceptual discussion before the empirical analysis leading to a stronger emphasis on big picture questions throughout Increased attention to contemporary relevant policy issues such as migration climate change and security Quantitative and descriptive data has been systematically updated The Political Economy of the Welfare State in Latin America Alex

Segura-Ubiergo,2007-06-25 This book is one of the first attempts to analyze how developing countries through the early twenty first century have established systems of social protection and how these systems have been affected by the processes of globalization and democratization The book focuses on Latin America to identify factors associated with the evolution of welfare state policies during the pre globalization period prior to 1979 whilst studying how globalization and democratization have affected governments fiscal commitment to social spending In contrast with the Western European experience more developed welfare systems evolved in countries relatively closed to international trade while the recent process of globalization that has swept the region has put substantial downward pressure on social security expenditures Health and education spending has been relatively protected from greater exposure to international markets and has actually increased substantially with the shift to democracy The Last Mile in Ending Extreme Poverty Laurence Chandy,Hiroshi Kato,Homi

Kharas,2015-07-20 Viewed from a global scale steady progress has been made in reducing extreme poverty defined by the 1 25 a day poverty line over the past three decades This success has sparked renewed enthusiasm about the possibility of eradicating extreme poverty within a generation However progress is expected to become more difficult and slower over time This book will examine three central changes that need to be overcome in traveling the last mile breaking cycles of conflict supporting inclusive growth and managing shocks and risks By uncovering new evidence and identifying new ideas and solutions for spurring peace jobs and resilience in poor countries The Last Mile in Ending Extreme Poverty will outline an agenda to inform poverty reduction strategies for governments donors charities and foundations around the world Contents Part I Peace Breaking the Cycle of Conflict External finance for state and peace building Marcus Manuel and Alistair McKechnie Overseas Development Institute Reforming international cooperation to improve the sustainability of peace Bruce Jones Brookings and New York University Bridging state and local communities through livelihood improvements Ryutaro Murotani JICA and Yoichi Mine JICA RI and Doshisha University Postconflict trajectories and the potential for poverty reduction Gary Milante SIPRI Part II Jobs Supporting Inclusive Growth Structural change and Africa s poverty puzzle John Page Brookings Public goods for private jobs lessons from the Pacific Shane Evans Michael Carnahan and Alice Steele Department of Foreign Affairs and Trade Government of Australia Strategies for inclusive development in agrarian Sub Saharan countries Akio Hosono JICA RI The role of agriculture in poverty reduction John McArthur Brookings UN Foundation and Fung Global Institute Part III Resilience Managing Shocks and Risks Environmental stress and conflict Stephen Smith George Washington University and Brookings Toward community resilience The role of social capital after disasters Go Shimada JICA RI Social protection and the end of extreme poverty Raj Desai Georgetown University and Brookings Cash

Transfers for Poverty Reduction Francisco V. Ayala,David Lawson,2023-12-06 Over the past 20 years more than 100

countries have implemented social safety nets targeted at the poorest and most vulnerable Impact evaluations have shown the effectiveness of these programmes and policymakers have explored different methods of delivery including cash transfers Cash Transfers for Poverty Reduction offers the first systematic discussion of the design and implementation of poverty reduction schemes and cash transfer programmes in particular The authors also draw on their own practical experience and present global case studies to show the effects that these decisions have on operations and outcomes Featuring end of chapter questions and answers to help test your knowledge this book offers an operational guide for key stakeholders officials and students in understanding the design implementation and monitoring and evaluation of cash transfer programmes

Urban Socio-Economic Segregation and Income Inequality Maarten van Ham, Tiit Tammaru, Rūta Ubarevičienė, Heleen Janssen, 2021-03-29 This open access book investigates the link between income inequality and socio economic residential segregation in 24 large urban regions in Africa Asia Australia Europe North America and South America It offers a unique global overview of segregation trends based on case studies by local author teams The book shows important global trends in segregation and proposes a Global Segregation Thesis Rising inequalities lead to rising levels of socio economic segregation almost everywhere in the world Levels of inequality and segregation are higher in cities in lower income countries but the growth in inequality and segregation is faster in cities in high income countries This is causing convergence of segregation trends Professionalisation of the workforce is leading to changing residential patterns High income workers are moving to city centres or to attractive coastal areas and gated communities while poverty is increasingly suburbanising As a result the urban geography of inequality changes faster and is more pronounced than changes in segregation levels Rising levels of inequality and segregation pose huge challenges for the future social sustainability of cities as cities are no longer places of opportunities for all
