A Study of Mixed Legal Systems: Endangered, Entrenched or Blended Sue Farran, Esin Örüçü, 2016-03-16 A Study of Mixed Legal Systems Endangered Entrenched or Blended takes the reader on a fascinating voyage of discovery It includes case studies of a number of systems from across the globe Cyprus Guyana Jersey Mauritius Philippines Quebec St Lucia Scotland and Seychelles Each combines its legal legacies in novel ways Large and small in Europe and beyond some are sovereign some part of larger political units Some are monolingual some bilingual some multilingual Along with an analytical introduction and conclusion the chapters

explore the manner in which the elements of these mixed systems may be seen to be entrenched endangered or blended It explores how this process of legal change happens questions whether some systems are at greater risk than others and details the strategies that have been adopted to accelerate or counteract change The studies involve consideration of the colourful histories of the jurisdictions of their complex relationships to parent legal systems and traditions and of language legal education and legal actors The volume also considers whether the experiences of these systems can tell us something about legal mixtures and movements generally Indeed the volume will be helpful both for scholars and students with a special interest in mixed legal systems as well as anyone interested in comparative law and legal history in the diversity and dynamism of law

New Challenges to Philosophy of Science Hanne Andersen, Dennis Dieks, Wenceslao J. Gonzalez, Thomas Uebel, Gregory Wheeler, 2013-05-28 This volume is a serious attempt to open up the subject of European philosophy of science to real thought and provide the structural basis for the interdisciplinary development of its specialist fields but also to provoke reflection on the idea of European philosophy of science This efforts should foster a contemporaneous reflection on what might be meant by philosophy of science in Europe and European philosophy of science and how in fact awareness of it could assist philosophers interpret and motivate their research through a stronger collective identity The overarching aim is to set the background for a collaborative project organising systematising and ultimately forging an identity for European philosophy of science by creating research structures and developing research networks across Europe to promote its development
