Social Reform Reformist Pressure Group:

Encyclopedia of Women Social Reformers Helen Rappaport, 2001-12-06 The first comprehensive guide to women activists from every part of the world illuminating the broad range of women's struggles to reform society from the 18th century to the present Despite being marginalized disenfranchised impoverished and oppressed women have always stepped forward in disproportionate numbers to lead movements for social change This two volume encyclopedia documents the visions struggles and lives of women who have changed the world This encyclopedia celebrates the lives and achievements of nearly 300 women from around the globe women who have bravely insisted that the way things are is not the way they have to be Nadeshda Krupskaya the wife of Lenin spearheaded the drive against illiteracy in post revolutionary Russia American Dorothy Day founded the Catholic worker movement Begum Rokeya Hossain organized a girls school in Calcutta in 1911 Rachel Carson launched the modern environmental movement with her book Silent Spring The stories of these women and the hundreds of others collected here will restore missing pages to our history and inspire a new generation of women to change the world

Radical Reformers Maurice R. Berube, 2004-10-01 Planting Empire, Cultivating Subjects Lynn Hollen Lees, 2017-12-21 Planting Empire Cultivating Subjects examines the stories of ordinary people to explore the internal workings of colonial rule Chinese Indians and Malays learned about being British through the plantations towns schools and newspapers of a modernizing colony Yet they got mixed messages from the harsh racial hierarchies of sugar and rubber estates and cosmopolitan urban societies Empire meant mobility fluidity and hybridity as well as the enactment of racial privilege and rigid ethnic differences Using sources ranging from administrative files court transcripts and oral interviews to periodicals and material culture Professor Lees explores the nature and development of colonial governance and the ways in which Malayan residents experienced British rule in towns and plantations This is an innovative study demonstrating how empire brought with it both oppression and economic opportunity shedding new light on the shifting nature of colonial subjecthood and identity as well as the memory and afterlife of empire

Extending Citizenship, Reconfiguring States Michael P. Hanagan, Charles Tilly, 1999 Citizenship has come under intense discussion recently because of threats to welfare and shifting immigration policies The European Union has opened transnational citizenship rights and fledgling democracies throughout the world are struggling to establish their own versions of citizenship Extending Citizenship Reconfiguring States connects all these current discussions and places them in historical perspective The book presents a thematically unified analysis of changing citizenship practices over two centuries_ from the eve of the French Revolution to contemporary China Showing how rights emerge with the appearance of new social groups and the reconfiguration of states the authors identify conditions under which rights and citizenship expand as new groups develop within consolidated states as well as how rights and citizenship emerge within fragmented states with cross cutting legal jurisdictions Environmental Pressure Groups in Transition Peter Rawcliffe, 1998 Presents a detailed study of the changing nature of environmental pressure groups since the 1980s The book concentrates on the most important national campaigning groups through which environmental pressure has been channelled in Britain A Subaltern History of the Indian Diaspora in Singapore John Solomon, 2016-03-31

Untouchable migrants made up a substantial proportion of Indian labour migration into Singapore in the nineteenth and twentieth centuries During this period they were subject to forms of caste prejudice and discrimination that powerfully reinforced their identities as untouchables overseas Today however untouchability has disappeared from the public sphere and has been replaced by other notions of identity leaving unanswered questions as to how and when this occurred The untouchable migrant is also largely absent from popular narratives of the past This book takes the disappearance as a starting point to examine a history of untouchable migration amongst Indians who arrived in Singapore from its modern founding as a British colony in the early nineteenth century through to its independence in 1965 Using oral history records archival sources colonial ethnography newspapers and interviews this book examines the lives of untouchable migrants through their everyday experience in an overseas multi ethnic environment It examines how these migrants who in many ways occupied the bottom rungs of their communities and colonial society framed transnational issues of identity and social justice in relation to their experiences within the broader Indian diaspora in Singapore The book traces the manner in which untouchable identities evolved and then receded in response to the dramatic social changes brought about by colonialism war and post colonial nationhood By focusing on a subaltern group from the past this study provides an alternative history of Indian migration to Singapore and a different perspective on the cultural conversations that have taken place between India and Singapore for much of the island's modern history Cities, Sin, and Social Reform in Imperial Germany Andrew Lees, 2002 An important examination of the colorful histories of urbanization and social reform in Imperial Germany

Singapore Ethnic Mosaic, The: Many Cultures, One People Mathews Mathew, 2017-10-31 Far from being a melting pot multi racial Singapore prides itself on the richness of its ethnic communities and cultures This volume provides an updated account of the heterogeneity within each of the main communities the Chinese Malay Indian Eurasian and Others It also documents the ethnic cultures of these communities by discussing their histories celebrations cultural symbols life cycle rituals cultural icons and attempts to preserve culture While chapters are written by scholars drawing insight from a variety of sources ranging from academic publications to discussions with community experts it is written in an accessible way This volume seeks to increase intercultural understanding through presenting ample insights into the cultural beliefs and practices of the different ethnic communities While this book is about diversity a closer examination of the peoples and cultures of Singapore demonstrates the many similarities communities share in this Singaporean space The Postcolonial Moment in South and Southeast Asia Gyan Prakash, Nikhil Menon, Michael Laffan, 2018-02-22 By exploring themes of fragility mobility and turmoil anxieties and agency and pedagogy this book shows how colonialism shaped postcolonial projects in South and Southeast Asia including India Pakistan Burma and Indonesia Its chapters unearth the contingency and contention that accompanied the establishment of nation states and their claim to be decolonized heirs The book places key postcolonial moments a struggle for citizenship anxious constitution making mass education and land reform against the aftermath of the Second World War and within a global framework relating them to the global transformation in political geography from empire to nation The chapters analyse how futures and ideals envisioned by anticolonial activists were made reality whilst others were discarded Drawing on the expertise of eminent contributors The Postcolonial Moment in South and Southeast Asia represents the most ground breaking research on the region Sites of Asian Interaction

Timothy Norman Harper, Sunil Amrith, 2014-07-14 This book sheds light on the history of political and religious globalisation in modern Asia transcending both national and imperial boundaries while expanding the range of methodologies and sources brought to bear on studying Asia's modernity It illuminates how ideas travelled across Asia and how they changed in the process Area Handbook for Malaysia John William Henderson, American University (Washington, D.C.). Wind of welfare and tax politics under the returned conservative rule 8 Conclusion Languages of Labor and Gender Kathleen Canning,2002 Kathleen Canning explores the changing meanings of women s work in Germany during the transformation from agrarian to industrial state from the mid nineteenth century through 1914 Canning places gender at the heart of the transitions from workshop to factory community to society and estate to class in the textile producing regions of the Rhineland and Westphalia The Paradox of Southern Progressivism, 1880-1930 William A. Link,2000-11-09 Focusing on the cultural conflicts between social reformers and southern communities William Link presents an important reinterpretation of the origins and impact of progressivism in the South He shows that a fundamental clash of values divided reformers and rural southerners ultimately blocking the reforms His book based on extensive archival research adds a new dimension to the study of American reform movements The new group of social reformers that emerged near the end of the nineteenth century believed that the South an underdeveloped and politically fragile region was in the midst of a social crisis They recognized the environmental causes of social problems and pushed for interventionist solutions As a consensus grew about southern social problems in the early 1900s reformers adopted new methods to win the support of reluctant or indifferent southerners By the beginning of World War I their public crusades on prohibition health schools woman suffrage and child labor had led to some new social policies and the beginnings of a bureaucratic structure By the late 1920s however social reform and southern progressivism remained largely frustrated Link s analysis of the response of rural southern communities to reform efforts establishes a new social context for southern progressivism He argues that the movement failed because a cultural chasm divided the reformers and the communities they sought to transform Reformers were paternalistic They believed that the new policies should properly be administered from above and they were not hesitant to impose their own solutions They also viewed different cultures and races as inferior Rural southerners saw their communities and customs quite differently For most local control and personal liberty were watchwords They had long deflected attempts of southern outsiders to control their affairs and they opposed the paternalistic reforms of the Progressive Era with equal determination Throughout the 1920s they made effective implementation of policy changes difficult if not impossible In a small scale war rural folk forced the reformers to confront the integrity of the communities they sought to change
