Social Work with Adults Martin Brett Davies, 2012-03-20. This best-selling book explores the crucial role of social workers in securing a better future for vulnerable and disadvantaged adult service users. Tackling the problems most common to this branch of social work, it focuses on four major themes: personalization, mental health, substance use, and old age. Edited by the highly respected Martin Davies and with contributions from some of the leading names in the field, Social Work with Adults provides a clear map and guidance to help navigate between the different elements of social work knowledge and practice. Whether a student on an undergraduate degree taking a module on working with adults or a qualified professional wanting to ensure they are providing the very best service they can, this is essential reading. The breadth and depth of coverage makes this text a perfect handbook for students of adult social work.

Supporting People with Alcohol and Drug Problems Sarah Galvani, 2012. This book addresses the gap in social work education by providing a combination of research evidence, policy frameworks, and practical hints and tips for good social work practice for all those in children's and adults' social work and social care settings who are working with people who use alcohol or other drugs.

Social Work Practice Eileen Gambrill, 2012-10-31. The first textbook to emphasize the importance of critical thinking skills to practice, this third edition of the classic Social Work Practice retains its unique focus on thinking critically about decisions that social workers make daily. Organized around the phases of helping, this hands-on introduction highlights the decision points that social workers encounter during assessment, intervention, and evaluation. This text, together with its companion website, provides students with a wealth of hands-on exercises for developing and assessing their practice skills. Most importantly, it helps students enhance client well-being by becoming critical thinkers and evidence-informed.
