Social Work Practices Karen Healy, 2000-01-28 Karen Healy profoundly challenges in the context of the postmodernity of late capitalism many of the assumptions upon which the critical tradition in social work has been founded This is a book which interrogates not only the emancipatory metanarratives of left perspectives from her position within the left but also questions many of the received ideas about her professional power and identity and about the kinds of social work practices necessary in order to continue to pursue welfare as an emancipatory project under transformed ideological and material circumstances This is a most significant contribution to the debates which confront social work worldwide at the present time Peter Leonard McGill University Canada importance of the social and pressure towards solely evidence based knowledge In addition to casting light on areas that have been in the shadows of the mainstream narrative the contributions to this book will raise new questions contributing to continuing discussions between and within each discipline This book was originally published as a special issue of Nordic Social Work Research Social Work Theories in Action Kieran O'Donoghue, Robyn Munford, Kieran O'Donoghue, Mary Nash, 2005-02-15 This wide ranging collection of essays offers valuable insights into the cultural issues involved in the practical application of social work theories Leading contributors explore the challenges faced by indigenous populations and ethnic minority groups and offer valuable guidance on cross cultural work New Directions in Social Work Practice Kieron Hatton, 2008-03-31 This book investigates the main influences shaping social work practice now and in the future Aimed at second and third year undergraduates and postgraduates it looks at current developments such as the rise of the service user movement and the influence of European perspectives In addition it draws on national policy developments including Every Child Matters Valuing People and Common Assessment Frameworks It also develops themes around interprofessional multi agency work common learning and enhancing the voluntary sector's role in service delivery Supported by activities and case studies it is an excellent follow on to the Learning Matters title What is Social Work
