The Sino-Soviet Dispute Alfred D. Low, 1976 Provides an analysis of the conflict between the Soviet Union and the People's Republic of China focusing on the polemics Attempts to trace and analyze Soviet and Chinese policies toward each other on the basis of available documents and general evidence Communism and Revolution Cyril E. Black, 2015-12-08 In a period marked by growing fluidity between the West and the Communist nations the role of revolution as an instrument of political and social change takes on an intense possibly dangerous importance Owing to the unacceptable risks of international war revolutions in the less developed countries are increasingly taking the place of war as the main arena of great power conflict Thus the attitudes and policies of the Communist countries toward revolution are of vital concern In this book thirteen specialists on Communist affairs consider how the Communists have used revolutions in the past what they have deduced from their experience and what prospects they hold for revolution in light of their ideological commitments Originally published in 1964 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905 The Battle for International Law Jochen von Bernstorff, Philipp Dann, 2019 This edited collection represents the first comprehensive analysis of international legal debates between 1955 and 1975 related to the formal decolonization process which brought a new perspective on topics such as self determination wars of national liberation and multinational corporations Legal Order in a Violent World Richard A. Falk, 2019-03-12 Professor Myres S McDougal of the Yale Law School calls this examination of the relation of law and violence in contemporary international society a profound perceptive and eloquent contribution to the most important problem of our time Professor Falk places great emphasis on two distinctive challenges to world order nuclear weapons and civil strife While developing the implication that even the most powerful states are vulnerable to destruction through nuclear attack he also points out that there is no very firm hope that military power can be managed so as to reduce the predominance of the sovereign state in world politics Richard A Falk is Milbank Professor of International Law and Practice Princeton University Published for the Center of International Studies Princeton University Originally published in 1968 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

Socialist Yugoslavia and the Non-Aligned Movement Paul Stubbs, 2023-01-15 After a summit in Belgrade in September 1961 socialist Yugoslavia led by President Josip Broz Tito until his death in 1980 initiated a movement with states in the Global South The Non Aligned Movement not only offered an alternative to the Cold War polarization between NATO and the Warsaw Pact but also expressed the hopes of a world emerging from colonial domination Socialist Yugoslavia and the Non Aligned Movement investigates the Non Aligned Movement both as a top down interstate initiative and as a site for transnational exchange in science art and culture architecture education and industry Reinvigorating older debates by consulting newly available sources the volume challenges studies that marginalize the role of socialist Yugoslavia in the Non Aligned Movement Contributors address topics such as women's involvement antifascism and anti imperialism cultural and educational exchange tensions in Yugoslav diplomacy competing understandings of economic development the role of the Yugoslav construction company Energoprojekt Yugoslav relations with Latin America and Africa and contemporary support for refugees and asylum seekers as a kind of practical and affective afterlife of Yugoslavia's non aligned commitments Socialist Yugoslavia and the Non Aligned Movement offers an innovative approach to one of the twentieth century's most important international movements and confronts issues of economic social and cultural rights that remain relevant today

The Routledge Handbook for Global South Studies on Subjectivities Sebastian Thies, Susanne Goumegou, Georgina Cebey, 2024-05-09 The Routledge Handbook for Global South Studies on Subjectivities provides a series of exemplary studies conjoining perspectives from Asian African and Latin American Studies on subjectivity in the Global South as a central category of social and cultural analysis The contestation of the Northern myth of the autonomous subject the dispositive that contests subject formation in the South by describing it as fragmented incomplete delayed or simply deviant has been a cornerstone of theory production from the South over the years This volume's contributions offer an interdisciplinary and transarea dialogue reframing issues of selfhood and alterity of personhood of the human of the commons and contesting the North's presumption in determining what kind of subjectivities abide by its norms whose voices are heard who is recognised as a subject and by extension whose lives matter In the context of the shifting dynamics of today's manifold crises they raise questions regarding how subjectivities act on or resist such forms of contestation contingency and indeterminacy A major contribution to the growing body of scholarship on the Global South this handbook will be an essential resource for students scholars researchers and instructors in literature media and culture studies sociology anthropology philosophy law politics visual arts and art history

Yugoslavia, Nonalignment and Cold War Globalism Zvonimir Stopić, Robert Niebuhr, David Pickus, 2024-10-28 This book explores the emergence of Yugoslav globalism and how it was influenced by the early Cold War the changes once Yugoslavia established itself as a nonaligned leader and what the decline of Yugoslav globalism reveals about the waning Cold War and the history of internationalist diplomacy Although Yugoslavia was correctly defined as a regional power it is not true that Tito's influence was confined to the Balkans alone Even before the 1948 split with Stalin political elites and intellectuals imagined socialist Yugoslavia as a model for international comity and development Subsequently due to dramatic changes in the climate of international diplomacy Yugoslav globalist outreach found an audience and altered the course of early and fateful superpower stand offs In turn such globalism was a significant part of Tito's stewardship of nonalignment This is a story that has never been fully told Yugoslavia Nonalignment and Cold War Globalism fills this gap in discussions of the emergence of globalist discourse in the post 1989 era This volume is aimed at scholars and students of the Cold War and Tito's era in Yugoslavia as well as general readers of history interested in leadership and the role of regional powers in world politics
