Socialismo Yel Hombre en Cuba Ernesto Che Guevara, 1988-01-01 El Socialismo y el hombre en Cuba Che Guevara, 1971 Abstract Expressionism Joan M. Marter, 2007 A collection of essays that discuss abstract expressionist art Art and Revolution in Latin America, 1910-1990 David Craven, 2006-01-01 In this uniquely wide ranging book David Craven investigates the extraordinary impact of three Latin American revolutions on the visual arts and on cultural policy The three great upheavals in Mexico 1910-40 in Cuba 1959-89 and in Nicaragua 1979-90 were defining moments in twentieth century life in the Americas Craven discusses the structural logic of each movement s artistic project by whom how and for whom artworks were produced and assesses their legacies In each case he demonstrates how the consequences of the revolution reverberated in the arts and cultures far beyond national borders The book not only examines specific artworks originating from each revolution s attempt to deal with the challenge of socializing the arts but also the engagement of the working classes in Mexico Cuba and Nicaragua with a tradition of the fine arts made newly accessible through social transformation Craven considers how each revolution dealt with the pressing problem of creating a dialogical art one that reconfigures the existing artistic resource rather than one that just reproduces a populist art to keep things as they were In addition the author charts the impact on the revolutionary processes of theories of art and education articulated by such thinkers as John Dewey and Paulo Freire The book provides a fascinating new view of the Latin American revolutionaries from artists to political leaders who defined art as a fundamental force for the transformation of society and who bequeathed new ways of thinking about the relations among art ideology and class within a revolutionary process Cuba and the New Origenismo James Buckwalter-Arias,2010 While Cuban literature was being recommodified for an international publishing industry various Cuban writers reclaimed the cultural movement associated with the magazine Or genes The literary texts examined in this study were written in the 1990s in the wake of a paradigm crisis for socialism and revolution

Corporeal Readings of Cuban Literature and Art Christina M. García,2024-05-21 Tracing corporeality and materiality across Cuban texts and images of the twentieth century This volume looks at Cuban literature and art that challenge traditional assumptions about the body Examining how writers and artists have depicted racial gender and species differences throughout the past century Christina Garc a identifies historical continuities in the way they have emphasized the shared materiality of bodies Garc a shows how these works interact with ecologies of the human and nonhuman across diverse media time periods and ideologies Garc a examines corporeality in a variety of works including the poetry of Nicol s Guill n and experimental writings of Severo Sarduy transspecies drawings paintings and sculptures by Roberto Fabelo Tom s Guti rrez Alea s popular queer film Fresa y chocolate and contemporary narrative fictions by Ena Luc a Portela Antonio Jos Ponte and Ahmel Echevarr a Using the lenses of new materialism critical race studies critical animal studies queer studies and poststructuralism Garc a engages with Cuban cultural production at the intersection of diverse social issues In this book Garc a explores how certain artistic practices focus on portraying ecological relationships instead of recognizable subjects or shared identity Corporeal Readings of Cuban Literature and Art demonstrates that through their attention to the connections that different kinds of bodies share Cuban creators have long undermined rules of classification and unification reimagining community as shared vulnerability and difference Publication of this work made possible by a Sustaining the Humanities through the American Rescue Plan grant from the National Endowment for the Humanities A World to Build Marta Harnecker,2015-01-09 Over the last few decades Marta Harnecker has emerged as one of Latin America s most incisive socialist thinkers In A World to Build she grapples with the question that has bedeviled every movement for radical social change how do you construct a new world within the framework of the old Harnecker draws on lessons from socialist movements in Latin America especially Venezuela where she served as an advisor to the Ch vez administration and was a director of the Centro Internacional Miranda A World to Build begins with the struggle for socialism today Harnecker offers a useful overview of the changing political map in Latin America examining the trajectories of several progressive Latin American governments as they work to develop alternative models to capitalism She combines analysis of concrete events with a refined theoretical understanding of grassroots democracy the state and the barriers imposed by capital For Harnecker twenty first century socialism is a historical process as well as a theoretical project one that requires imagination no less than courage She is a lucid guide to the movements that are fighting right now to build a better world and an important voice for those who wish to follow that path Marx and Freud in Latin America Bruno Bosteels,2012-08-21 This book assesses the untimely relevance of Marx and Freud for Latin America thinkers alien to the region who became an inspiration to its beleaguered activists intellectuals writers and artists during times of political and cultural oppression Bruno Bosteels presents ten case studies arguing that art and literature the novel poetry theatre film more than any militant tract or theoretical essay can give us a glimpse into Marxism and psychoanalysis not so much as sciences of history or of the unconscious respectively but rather as two intricately related modes of understanding the formation of subjectivity

Politics and Violence in Cuban and Argentine Theater K. Ford,2010-02-01 This book looks at Cuban and Argentine theater of the late 1960s and early 1970s to see how the idea of spectacle as violence was used to comment on and question the social and political violence that was unfolding offstage Forms of Disappointment Lanie Millar,2019-09-01 Analyzes parallel developments in post Cold War literature and film from Cuba and Angola to trace a shared history of revolutionary enthusiasm disappointment and solidarity In Forms of Disappointment Lanie Millar traces the legacies of anti imperial solidarity in Cuban and Angolan novels and films after 1989 Cuba s intervention in Angola s post independence civil war from 1976 to 1991 was its longest and most engaged internationalist project and left a profound mark on the culture of both nations After the fall of the Berlin Wall Millar argues Cuban and Angolan writers and filmmakers responded to this collective history and adapted to new postsocialist realities in analogous ways developing what she characterizes as works of disappointment Revamping and riffing on earlier texts and forms of revolutionary enthusiasm works of disappointment lay bare the aesthetic and political fragmentation of the public sphere while continuing to register the promise of leftist political projects Pushing past the binaries that tend to dominate histories of the Cold War and its aftermath Millar gives priority to the perspectives of artists in the Global South illuminating networks of anticolonial and racial solidarity and showing how their works not only reflect shared feelings of disappointment but also call for ethical gestures of empathy and reconciliation Forms of Disappointment offers an insightful and unique comparative analysis of a body of works produced in the post Cold War period By focusing on the Global South instead of the customary north south relationship favored by Cuba experts the book contributes significantly to the fields of Cuban African and Latin American Studies and more broadly to affect theory and postcolonial studies It is remarkably well written with elegant and clear prose Marta Hern ndez Salv n author of M nima Cuba Heretical Poetics and Power in Post Soviet Cuba Culture and the Cuban State Yvon Grenier,2017-11-08 Culture and the Cuban State examines the politics of culture in communist Cuba It focuses on cultural policy censorship and the political participation of artists writers and academics such as Tania Bruguera Jes s D az Rafael Hern ndez Kcho Reynier Leyva Novo Leonardo Padura and Jos Toirac The cultural field is important for the reproduction of the regime in place given its pretense and ambition to be eternally revolutionary and to lead a genuine cultural revolution Cultural actors must be mobilized and handled with care given their presumed disposition to speak their mind and to cherish their autonomy This book argues that cultural actors also seek recognition by the main for a long time the only sponsor and patron of the art in Cuba the curator state The curator state is also a gatekeeper state arbitrarily and selectively opening and closing the space for public expression and for access to foreign currencies and the global market The time when everything was either mandatory or forbidden is over in Cuba The regime seems to have learned from egregious mistakes that led to a massive exodus of artists writers and academics In a country where things change so everything could stay the same the controlled opening in the cultural field playing on the actors ambition and fear illuminates a broader phenomenon the evolving rules of the political game in the longest standing dictatorship of the hemisphere

Perspectives on the 'other America' Michael Niblett, Kerstin Oloff, 2009 Uniting critical writing on novels poetry painting and ritual this volume takes a regional approach to the cultures of the Caribbean Basin Ranging across the linguistic spectrum of the area it examines cultural production from the Anglophone Francophone and Hispanophone islands Suriname and the Guyanas and Latin and Central America The interdisciplinary nature of the collection and the challenge it poses to the balkanization of the region within academic discourse will make it of especial interest to students and scholars of the Caribbean Inspired by the category of the Other America as developed by douard Glissant the book offers a series of original and stimulating engagements with topics that include nationalism migration and exile landscape and the environment gender and sexuality and Postcolonial Studies and world literature In addition to contributions by leading scholars such as Peter Hulme Theo D haen and Lizabeth Paravisini Gebert it contains interviews with two renowned novelists from the region Lawrence Scott and Mayra Santos Febres Underpinning the collection is an interrogation of received ideas of the nation state and a suggestion that regionalism might provide a better optic through which to view the circum Caribbean that national consciousness in other words must always also be a regional consciousness

Fidel between the Lines Laura-Zoë Humphreys, 2019-10-25 In Fidel between the Lines Laura Zo Humphreys traces the changing dynamics of criticism and censorship in late socialist Cuba through a focus on cinema Following the collapse of the Soviet Union the Cuban state strategically relaxed censorship attempting to contain dissent by giving it an outlet in the arts Along with this shift foreign funding and digital technologies gave filmmakers more freedom to criticize the state than ever before yet these openings also exacerbated the political paranoia that has long shaped the Cuban public sphere Drawing on ethnographic fieldwork textual analysis and archival research Humphreys shows how Cuban filmmakers have historically turned to allegory to communicate an ambivalent relationship to the Revolution and how such efforts came up against new forms of suspicion in the 1990s and the twenty first century Offering insights that extend beyond Cuba Humphreys reveals what happens to public debate when freedom of expression can no longer be distinguished from complicity while demonstrating the ways in which combining anthropology with film studies can shed light on cinema s broader social and political import El socialismo y el hombre en Cuba Ernesto Guevara,1992 Cuba's Foreign Policy in Global Solidarity Organizations Lasse B. Lassen,2024-12-23 This book analyzes the influence of the Cuban Revolutionary Government on the evolution of the Afro Asian Peoples Solidarity Organization AAPSO The author argues that Cuba s accession to AAPSO and the convocation of two solidarity conferences 1966 1967 in Havana initiated a political shift for the organization The Cuban Revolutionary Government thus promoted the inclusion of Latin American delegations that represented their countries leftist and pro Cuban dissidence as well as rural guerilla movements Adding to that Fidel Castro s independent stance towards AAPSO s two main financiers the USSR and the PR China fostered a gradual emancipation of the postcolonial organization from the dominance of its sponsors The book offers a better understanding of the theoretical foundations of Cuba s foreign policy and explains how Havana used the two solidarity conferences to better the island s international prestige at times of diplomatic isolation Retracing the diplomatic influence of a small but key diplomatic actor of the Cold War this study will appeal to postcolonial and Latin America scholars as well as to academic researchers in contemporary history and political sciences
